Drewsey Items.

July 21st 1893.

ED. HERALD; The haying season come at last being one hundred in the shade, although two weeks behind time.

There will be a shortage of hay on the Malheur.

Grain is very late and if the fall is not seasonable there will be little threshing to do.

Hay hands are scarce. Some being obliged to press in town boys, even editors, which prove to be the best, by a little coaxing, such as two or three luncheons, holding the umbrella and fanning several times per day.

The rain today has stopped the progress of haying.

Little Claudie Kenyon had his right hand severely mashed with one of the pulleys on the deric polls.

Mr. Morgan is having some colts broke, he also is having his potato patch weeded.

Mrs. Moffitt of Drewsey is very low with heart disease.

Mr. Masterson of Drewsey is building an addition to his dwelling.

Pine Creek in the Lead.

The Local Institute held here on the 20th inst., proved to be a grand success although the Superintendent failed to make his appearance. Prof. D. Claypool acted in his place and carried out the program in good order, with credit to himself and all engaged. In the forenoon, as they were patiently waiting for the Superintendent, the time was passed watching the good work of Prof. Lehmann and his pupils.

At one o'clock p.m., the organization took place with Prof. Claypool in the chair. Next was the review of the school by Col. McMullen.

"Duties of Parents Relating to Schools," was thoroughly discussed by Profs. Lehman, Claypool and others.

The Pine Creek accordionist band under the management of Mrs. L. McMullen, furnished music for the day; never before has been better music listened to. They played with credit to all those engaged, and especially to their skillful trainer.

The literary exercises by pupils and others was excellent. Last, but not least, the subject relating to the Superintendent's absence on such occasions, was fully discussed by all present, and was decided by a vote of acclimation—that each and every time the Superintendent failed to fulfill his appointment, there should be a penalty of a fine of not less than $50.

After the exercises were all over, Mr. McMullen invited the crowd up for supper, where they were treated to a quarter of barbecued beef, stewed fish, young ducks, etc. Everybody reports having a good time. CRICKET.

ED. HERALD:—In your last issue you mentioned the case of State vs. Chas. Newell, and stated that the County Judge, Clerk and Treasurer testified to the claim and statements of the Superintendent being regular and strictly according to law." The evidence of the officials named only touched on the records of their respective offices and had nothing to do with the justice or injustice of the Superintendent's claims. And that the records do not show that Prof. Newell held local institutes in 1891, that being the ground upon which the information was laid. JUST.

A Pioneer's Experience With Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I am a pioneer in this country, having been here 30 years. Four years ago my little son Elroy became blood poisoned by impure virus in vaccination. His arm swelled terribly, causing great agony; Physicians said the arm must be amputated, and even then his recovery would be doubtful. One day I read about a blood purifier new to me, and was surprised to learn that it was prepared by C. I. Hood, with whom I used to go to school in Chelsea, Vt. I decided to have my boy try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and was much gratified when it seemed to help him. He continued to grow better as we gave him the Sarsaparilla, and having used 8 bottles is now entirely cured. As Hood's Sarsaparilla has accomplished such wonderful results, I recommend it all I possibly can." JEROME M. SLEEPER, Upper Lake, Lake Co., Cal.

The City Treasurer

Of Lowell, Mass., says: "The above is from my brother, whose signature I recognized. I am also glad to testify to the excellence of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and to say that C. I. Hood & Co. are considered one of the most reliable firms in New England." VAN B. SLEKARAN, City Treasurer, Lowell, Mass.
