Local News.

—Circuit court convenes the 23d inst.

—E. A. Stauffer visited Burns last Saturday.

—Peter French left here Sunday for San Francisco.

—Isaac Foster was in town Saturday and Sunday last.

—Many thanks to father Bowen for presentation of two fine squashes.

—During the last month this country has been a second "Web-foot" in the way of rain.

—John Roberts of the Harney Times paid us a visit last Wednesday afternoon.

—A dog belonging to J. C. Wooley got poisoned here yesterday and went up the "flume."

—Our mail on the Ontario and Burns line has been somewhat irregular the last ten or twelve days.

—Henry Welcome started for the city of Chicago several days since, his object is to enter an institute of pharmaceuticals to perfect his knowledge in that science.

—Mrs. Etta Horton has been very ill since her return home, with typhoid pneumonia, but Dr. McPheeters, her physician, reports her now improving. Her mother, Mrs. Stancliff, is with her.

—This office sent out in the last week quite a number of statements to subscribers owing subscriptions. We hope our friends will remember we have to live and pay debts.

—We are informed that Pay-Day and Gray Dick are matched at $500 a side 1/4 mile race to be run at Prairie City next Saturday, also, Red S. and one other, we forget the name, are matched to run a quarter on the same day at the same place.

—While Henry Cheatham, barber, was absent in the country a couple of days, some miscreant or probably more than one were concerned, forcibly entered his barber shop mused up things generally, and took away with them three razors.

—Last Monday some one fond of turkey, and not disposed to pay for one, shot a turkey belonging to John W. Sayer, but John heard the crack of the gun and suspected something wrong and proceeded to investigate. He pushed the fellow so closely he was compelled to drop the turkey and run.

—The teams left here last Sunday for Ontario to bring in Mr. Kellogg's artesian outfit.

—N. Brown, the pioneer merchant of our town, who has been absent for several months in Calif. returned last Monday. His many friends here cordially welcome him home and are much gratified to see him looking hale and hearty.

—We regret very much that one of our physicians, Dr. Marsden, has determined to leave us. The Dr. has many warm friends here who will reluctantly bid him good bye. He will leave Burns in a short time to locate in Baker City.

—An exchange gives an account of an editor living down south, who sends his bill to subscribers each year. When the second bill is sent and no response, he publishes the delinquents "obituary" taking it for granted that he is dead. This brings the delinquent to the front every time.

—Sam Kenyon had a run-a-way the other day, which might have been a serious affair, but luckily one horse fell and the three other horses found it an up hill business dragging the fallen one and stopped. Mr. Kenyon received a shaking up he is not likely to forget soon, and the horse that fell received some bruises, is the extent of the damage.

—Mr. J. B. Milligan a resident of our county residing about 20 miles from Drewsey on the North fork of the Malheur, met with a very serious accident a few days since. He was walking by the side of his wagon, which was loaded with wood, his son driving the team, the horses shied jumping to one side which caused the wagon to turn over. Mr. Milligan not having time to jump out of the way was caught by the wagon, and received very serious or probably fatal injuries.

—Sometimes personal local notices, which our readers expect us to publish fail to "show up." In such instances it is seldom the local editor or typos are to blame. You see, it's this way, our office has, what we call a local hook upon this are placed the locals, the typos set them as they come to them and frequently it occurs there are more locals on the hook than we have space for, consequently some are left over, and it sometimes happens they are of a class that we particularly desire published, but then it is too late, the page is made up ready for the press, and to partially do the work again this takes too much time.

—The defense in the desert land contest, now being heard at our land office, got through examining the witnesses for their side last Saturday, and moved a postponement or continuance of the case until some future time, because of the necessary absence of attorney and Peter French. The attorney for plaintiff objected arguing that the motion set forth by defendant was not well taken or a sufficient cause for continuance. The court (Register and Receiver) were divided, as is usually the case in this land office, the Register voting for continuance and Receiver against it, consequently the case is going on and evidence being taken.

Vanity.

VAN Oct 6th.

Mr. Pry Wilson is visiting his step daughter Mrs. J. H. Anderson.

The continued wet weather makes it disagreeable for Olson brothers who are harvesting Mr. Anderson's grain.

Mr. Ed Duncan and Uncle Dave Sewart of Drewsey and Fred Bliss have gone to the mountains up Coyote creek, the former in quest of game and the latter after barn logs.

Wildcats and Coyotes are killing poultry in this neighborhood to an alarming extent. Scarcely a hen roost but what mourns the loss of from one to a dozen or more.

VANITY.

Harney Items.

Oct. 8 1893.

Your correspondent begs pardon for jumping a cog, but was busy training his race horses last week. Will be more prompt in the future.

It is reported that Hank Rader, formerly of this county, was hanged last Friday in California for murder, and that he wrote to his wife's relatives previous to his demise to send for his family, as they were in destitute circumstances and among strangers. Mrs. Rader is a daughter of Chas. Riley, of Malheur county.

Ted Hayes has been visiting in Harney several days the past week.

D. N. Catterson, of Lawen, was in town yesterday.

Teams are hauling lumber from Kings mill for building larger barn on the P. L. S. Co. ranches at the Agency and Harper.

S. H. Simmons, of the Narrows, was in town this week.

C. W. Jones, the P. L. S. Co. agent is in town.

Hog Smith's bondsmen have given him up and he is now in the custody of the sheriff. His family are at Kings mill and in very destitute circumstances. The county court should look after their needs while the head of the family is not able to take care of them.

Crickets are beginning to hatch, so say our farmers who have commenced their fall plowing, and the prospect is that they will be killed by the winter freezes.

J. W. Shown was down from the saw mill yesterday and will soon start for the John Day country for fruit.

Dr. Marsden's friends here are sorry to learn of his intended departure from this county.

The meeting of the democratic county central committee the 23d is the absorbing topic of conversation at present. Nominations by a direct vote of the people is in the majority here. "Dad" James, the committeeman from Harney precinct, is a time-honored democrat, tried and true, and he will go to the meeting to work for "nominations by the people, of the people and for the people." That is democracy.

Threshing is almost all done in this vicinity and grain did not come up to the general expectations though many crops were above the average.
