

NEWS IN GENERAL FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—One of the most interested listeners to the closing debate in the senate on the repeal bill was Moreton Frewen, a leading bimetalist of Great Britain. Frewen does not think the cause of bimetalism by any means hopeless, but on the contrary believes that the wide attention which has been drawn to the subject by the discussion in the senate will serve to force the question to the front of the world over. He has no doubt the very interests now clamoring the loudest for repeal will be forced by business exigencies to come to the support of silver coinage in a few years. He has high admiration for the way the silver side of the question has been presented in the senate, and regards Senate Jones of Nevada, as one of the greatest authorities on finance in the world. One of the results of his visit to America at this time may be the formation of an international association in the interest of silver.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 28 — Corbett's demand for a guarantee of $10,000 from the Olympic Club in the event of their failure to bring off the contest between him and Miethell has aroused no end of criticism hostile to the reputation of the heavy weight champion. Secretary Ross of the Olympic Club, said yesterday that it was out of the question for the Olympic Club to even entertain such a proposal. Any club consenting to such a proposition would be sure to lose its money, for it would then be to the interests of the champion to have himself arrested, or, at all event, to have the fight stopped in some way. Mitchell's demands were very reasonable and sportsmanlike, and they were like those of a man who desired a meeting. The club, Secretary Ross said would have no difficulty in making a satisfactory arrangement with Mitchell, as the Englishman only wanted to be remunerated for actual outlay in case the meeting should be prevented. His wishes were honorable, and the club would have readily consented to such an arrangement.

CHALLENGES THE WORLD.—Dr. Jay Guy Lewis, general superintendent of the Oregon exhibit at the world's fair, has issued the following: Whereas, under the present system of awards some dissatisfaction has been expressed and that each state and county may have a chance to enter into friendly competition, the state of Oregon, through its legal representatives here, challenges the world to compete on the following terms and conditions; Apples, embracing thirty or more varieties shall be the fruit entered. Each state or county entering shall deposit $100 with C G Wright, superintendent of pomology; judges to be appointed as follows: Each state entering to select one judge, they to select one or two as the case may be so that the number of jurors shall be uneven in number. Col Brackett of Iowa, is acceptable to the state of Oregon as committee on nomenclature. Money collected as entrance fee to be used by some one selected by the state entering who shall have a suitable medal made to be given state receiving highest award."

CHICAGO, Nov. 1—Jimmy Carroll, the old-time robber, died in St. John's hospital a few days ago. He was associated with the notorious Jimmie Hope and others who robbed the Manhattan bank in New York city. He was connected with numerous bank robberies throughout the country. About 1879 Carroll stole $15,000 in a clever way. The cashier of the Lachine canal extension made a monthly trip from Montreal, carrying the money for his hands in a valise. Carroll and a pal had a duplicate valise made, and succeeded in substituting it. Carroll was arrested later, and offered to compromise for $10,000, but the offer was refused. Carroll was about 50 years old. He lived all his life on his stealings, which would have made him a wealthy man had he not spent them all.

A high-class illustrated monthly magazine in the home is no longer a luxury. It is a necessity, and to meet the demand created by this necessity, THE COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE, giving yearly, as it does, 1536 pages of reading by the ablest living authors, with over 1200 illustrations by clever artists, has stepped into the breach, with a reduction in its price that has startled the literary world.

The HERALD, fully alive to the needs of its patrons, has made special arrangements with this superb monthly, whereby it will receive orders for yearly subscriptions to both publications combined for the sum of $3.00.

The price of the great illustrated monthlies in the past has been $3.00 and $4.00 a year, and they were to be found only in the more pretentious homes. Our offer furnishes a help to all families, no matter how modest their means, to keep in touch with the greatest minds of the world, as The Cosmopolitan has today the strongest regular staff of any existing periodical.
