WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 8, 1893

WAS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER IN THIS COUNTY.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING Agent, 21 Merchants' Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. This paper is captioned in his office.

Local News.

—Miss Ella Whiting is quite sick.

—W. Y. King is on the sick list this week.

—We wonder who it is that begrudges us our little land office?

—Thanks giving one of these days. No Turkey at our house.

—Skating rink at the Young Hall, Adelor Racine and Ed Moore proprietors.

—Miss Ollie Frye is an apt scholar in learning the art of setting type.

—Cal Geer was called to his father's home in the Willamette Valley a few days since, by the sickness of his father.

—Samuel Kenyon returned last Monday from the John Day country, where he went to purchase fruit for home consumption this winter.

—Teachers examination, begins here at the school building to-morrow morning and continues three days, hence no school the rest of the week.

—Mr. Kane, a young man who has been stopping in our town for some time, broke his right arm a few days since. In jumping from a cart in some way he tripped and fell breaking his arm.

—The Long Creek Eagle gives an account of the killing of a saddle thief, named Shirtz near Drewsey in this county. We guess it must be a false report, because we have not been informed of any such deed.

—Commissioner Altnow came in this morning on the stage, pretty well worn out by his night ride over rough road. He has just returned from a visit east to see relatives, which he says he enjoyed immensely.

—William Harvey is sole agent for the Salem Woolen Mill Store, in this and Grant counties. Blankets fine as silk, robes inferior to none, overshirts and underwear as cheap as the cheapest, socks, gloves, mittens, overcoats, flannels by the yard, cloth by the yard, ladies dress flannels, etc. etc. Takes measure for men's and youth's clothing. Call and see him, office at the French Hotel.

—Dr. McPheeters has moved into the M. N. Fegly residence.

—Dance at the Caldwell hall Friday evening and basket supper at Mrs. Johnson's restaurant.

—Ralph C. Geer is now at Vancouver running a Hardware Store. The HERALD joins his many friends in wishing him success.

—Henderson Elliott's freight team loaded with groceries for J. Durkheimer came in last Saturday.

—Chas. Frye started to the railroad again last Sunday, with his freight team after more goods for J. Durkheimer.

—Receiver Kelley received a letter from the commissioner of the land office Washington City, saying a letter was there on file recommending the consolidation of the Burns and La Grande Land offices.

—The extra session of congress adjourned on the afternoon of the 3rd inst. The President signed the Chinese excision bill, extending for six months the time in which Chinese can register under the Geary law.

—Every citizen of this town and county should interest himself to prevent if possible the consolidation of this land office and the La Grande office. Remember every dollar spent in going to La Grande, if the move is successful, is taken out of the county, and moreover it will put our people to much greater expense.

The editor sat in his easy chair lazily browning and stroking his hair.

His wife, poor thing, sat up stairs evolving the problem of household cares.

A knock at the door the editor said "Come in," when behold Delinquent Quin stepped in, with a grin.

—Now Delinquent Quin was behind four long years—

"Good morning Mr. Editor," "How do do Quin, have a chair, but beware, it's a sorry affair, I mean the chair." "Rainy weather," said Delinquent Quin. "So it is Mr. Quin, it's almost a sin, for one to complain, but all the same, it's hard to refrain, but such beastly weather!"—"Here's two dollars," said Quin, "give me credit for I owe you more, but times are so sore, and I am so poor, my wife wants a new hat, and some candy for the brat—"

"Certainly Mr. Quin much oblige, much oblige, a fine day Mr. Quin, I hope your family is well."—"Yelling up stairs—Mrs. Jones! Mrs. Jones!! Mrs. Jones!!! buy some meat for dinner."

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Most Perfect Made.

—We stepped in the other evening for a quiet chat, with our neighbor W. N. Jorgenson, and while the "old" was showing us his diaphragms taken at the local meat market on the proper locality to make it successful, we went into his place yesterday and found three of our kind of sausage, sugar-cured ham, fresh hocks, lard, bread and butter for sale at low figures.

—How is the politics in this county? Has the democratic party sufficient votes and support for the purposes of the party to unite in an effort to establish supremacy in the county or are we so prejudiced regarding section and personal interest as to jeopardize the success of the party?

—A. J. McKinnon opened a blacksmiths shop, this week, opposite the clerk's office. He is prepared to do all kind of work done in shops in country towns, has had several years experience and asks his friends and the citizens of the town and vicinity to give him a trial he thinks he can give general satisfaction both in work and prices.

—It is hardly possible to estimate the inconvenience and extra expenditure of money and time, the consolidation of this and La Grande land offices, will cause the settlers of this county. We certainly think that Uncle Sam has more regard for the unfortunate poor man wanting a home for himself and family, than to allow a movement of such a nature which can only benefit the land-grabbers and give them a still better opportunity to dispossess the actual settler and defraud the government.

—Paul Greely, a youth about 17 years of age, was arrested last evening charged with stealing a pair of boots from the boot and shoe store of Geo Fry. It appears the boy stole the boots and traded the same at the skating rink for tickets. The youth has been skating at Peter Stenger's since school started here, going to school and doing chores for his board. The deputy sheriff searched the room occupied by the youth, Greely, and found other merchandise which is likely stolen property.

Samuel Blackwell, third auditor of the treasury, in his annual report states that during the past year there has been an enormous increase in the pension disbursements. The number of vouchers paid by pension agents has increased year by year from 1,226,119, involving $59,906,501, in 1883, to 3,669,009, involving $155,071,506.98, in 1893. This is an increase of 200 per cent in 10 years, while the clerical force has increased from 49 to 64, 30 per cent only, in the same period. At the close of the fiscal year there were in the office unexamined 1,284,310 pension vouchers, representing about four months work. A lack of room to keep the records intact is mentioned. The auditor states that pension vouchers are accumulating at the rate of $4,000,000 a month, and adds: "I cannot see how the office can, without additional flerrooms, preserve the records as the law requires."

—An electric car ran off the East end of the Madison street bridge at Portland on the morning of the 1st, and plunged into the Willamette river, by which four persons lost their lives.

—The assassination of Mayor Harrison, by a crank, is another warning to men in public life, who often receive threatening letters, to be on their guard, for cranks when they threaten only wait an opportunity to perpetrate their fiendish designs.

—Frank Bowers, who some time since, unfortunately cut his leg with an adz while at work on the tower at the site of the artesian well, is again able to be around and expects in a day or two to go to work at the same place, but he hopes not with similar results.

—Dr. Marsden left our town for his future home, Baker City last Thursday. The Dr. has many friends here, who regret his departure, and hope the change will be advantageous to him and that he will speedily build up a lucrative practice in that city and vicinity.

We understand there are about thirty Harneyites, big, little, old and young, residing in our town. They talk of holding a reunion this winter. We presume they will have a feast of good things, minus jack rabbits, sage hens, mud hens and snips.—Ob-eyer

"Did Mrs. Dudderson cry when her daughter married old Booh dell?"

"Yes, poor thing. It is tough to bring up a daughter, and then, at the age twenty-one, have her cut her mother out."

ALMOST A HINT.

"It's a beautiful day for a walk," she said, looking out of the window.

"Indeed it is," he said, doing likewise.

"Would you like to take a walk?" she continued.

"Above all things," he answered.

"Then why don't you?" she inquired.

As William bent over her fair face, he whispered, "Darling, if I should ask you in French if I might kiss you, what would you answer?"

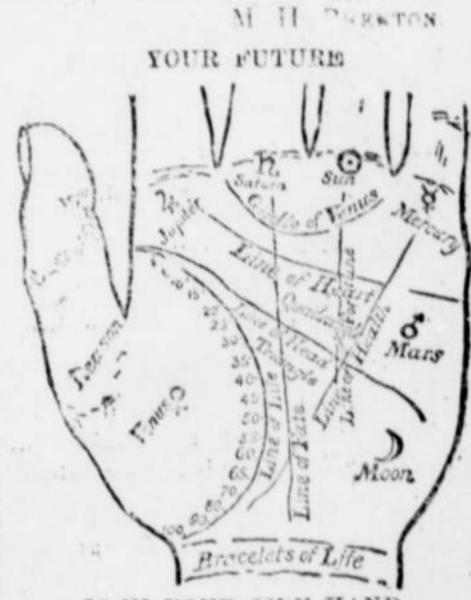

She, summoning up her scanty knowledge of the language, replied, "Billet doux!"
