FROM OUREXCHANGES.

To Assist Admiral Mello.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11—The Herald's London dispatch says: It is learned on good authority that a well-known English retired officer is forming a small crew of cruisers and torpedo boats in England, in command of which he intends to proceed to the assistance of Admiral Mello.

He has already purchased two ships, which will be fitted up as cruisers, and is negotiating with a leading Thames shipbuilder for two torpedo boats. Several English naval officers are preparing to accompany this expedition.

Prudent Horace.

Miss Mabel [in a tearful burst of confidence]—Mamma, I'm so disappointed in Horace! You can't think!

Mamma—What's the matter now, dear? Have you quarreled?

Miss Mabel—No; but when I told him my birthday came Dec. 25, he said: "Dearest, let us be married that day!" I do believe he was thinking how much money he would save in making presents if all our anniversaries came on Christmas!—Chicago Tribune.

—To Subscribers—The HERALD and Rural Northwest both for the price of the HERALD. The Rural Northwest is a good newsy paper devoted to the wants of the agriculturist. Now is the time to pay up your arrears' and one year in advance and get an additional paper in the bargain.
