WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 6, 1893,

AGAIN THE CRARK.

St. Louis, Nov. 29 .- A crank, armed with a revolver and with murder in his soul, appeared at the federal building this afternoon, and only for a note of warning, which he wrote, threatening the life of John F. McCullough, a secret service operative, he would have killed him. When the crank appeared McCullough seized him, took his revolver from his pocket and then

"Why do you want to kill me?" "I do not want to kill you, but they tell me to kill you. Prendergast did not want to kill Carter Harrison, but someone told him to kill the mayor.

The crank, whose name is Natnan Whitwork, or Byrnesyille, Mo, was arrested, but was afterward placed on a train for his home.
