ed in Forcing This Country to a Gold Standard.

wanted to head off the United States it. as a competitor with the silver countries. By forcing us to the gold standard we were prevented fron. competing with her for the trade of the countries that use silver money. China and Japan, and all the East. except India, are, still on the silver standard. Mexico, Central America and South America are silver countries. And these silver countries are the customers we want, and under our reciprocity treaties we were reaching out for their trade As long as we used silver money we had the advantage of Great Britain And if we had not hearkened to British advice and had maintained our silver money at a parity with gold, in less than five years we would have had the entire commerce of the Orient and of all the American states south of us, We have lost the opportunity of a cen tury to achieve commercial su premacy by surrendering to the influence of Lombard street -- Tele gram.

The present indications, politica ly, are that men whom the reopt have contidence in, and not party will be the politics of this county election in June.

We are persuaded to make this assertion upon evidence, sustaining sation with parties from different parts of the county.

Republicans tell us that they do not conceive 'it an injury to their party principles to vote for a clean and able democrat or populist in preference to an unfit republican. and democrats and populists ex

When such is the case who can point the finger and touch the prize. who is able to gather from the political horizon the probable result of our next county election.

One thing satisfactory in this condition of our political affairs, is the healthy effect it will necessarily have on the proceedings of our county conventions.

No party cognizant of the result caused by the selection of objec tionable candidates can take the chances of such a selection, when certain defeat would be the natural consequence. The voters of Harney county will undoubtedly look to the characters of the candidates nominated and mark cur prophetic words "bad timber will be bewndown without mercy."

We tell you positively that with the people it does not make the least difference, in the world. whether a candidate be a democrat, republican or populist, if he has the ability and considered impartial in the discharge of his duties, those are the candidates who will get the votes of the people.

IT is thought by many that President Cleveland will veto the Bland seigniorage bill, for fear the passage of such a bill will disturb the finan-
