

Suicide at Salem.

SALEM, Or., March 9.—About 8 this morning Elijah Bressler, a workman, about 26 years of age, committed suicide by shooting himself in the left side of the head with a shotgun, tearing an enormous hole in his head. Death was instantaneous. Bressler had been acting queerly for several days. Last night he was a raving maniac, and begged his wife to give him the gun which had been hidden from him that he might kill himself. This morning he became quieter and asked for the gun, saying he wanted to go hunting. His wife gave it to him and in a few minutes, without warning, he said, "Here goes," and discharged the contents into his head.—Telegram.

A LIBERAL OFFER.—The big eight page Sunday Statesman will be sent to any dress from now until July 1st for only 50c. cash to accompany the order. This is a most liberal hard times campaign offer, as the Statesman is the second paper in Oregon, and republican to the core. This is a campaign of education and it is our purpose to assist in the good work. The statesman gives all the news of state and nation and during the campaign its Sunday edition will be a symposium of political news and gossip for the entire state. It is illustrated and consists of eight full pages of selected reading matter, including a short story and a wealth of poetry and miscellany. Every voter in Oregon should read a paper from the capital during the campaign and we make this offer to suit the times. Sample copies free. All subscriptions will be consecutively numbered up on receipt and to each tenth subscriber will be present a year's subscription to the Cosmopolitan Magazine, costing $1.00. Address all orders to The Statesman Salem Ore.

MAY BROTHERS, Nurserymen, Rochester, N. Y.

A high-class illustrated monthly magazine in the home is no longer a luxury. It is a necessity, and to meet the demands created by this necessity, THE COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE, giving yearly, as it does, 1536 pages of reading by the ablest living authors, with over 1200 illustrations by clever artists, has stepped into the breach, with a reduction in its price that has startled the literary world.

The HERALD, fully alive to the needs of its patrons, has made special arrangements with the superb monthly, whereby it will receive orders for yearly subscriptions to both publications combined for the sum of $3.00.

The price of the great illustrated monthlies in the past has been $3.00 and $4.00 a year, and therefore to be found only in the more pretentious homes. Our offer furnishes a help to all families, no matter how modest their means, to keep in touch with the great minds of the world, as The Cosmopolitan has today the strongest regular staff of any existing periodical.
