—Messrs. Drinkwater, McKinney, Copeland and several other Harney citizens visited our town in the last week.

—Charley Peterson is in town today. He came in yesterday evening bringing a half dozen fine beef steers, to our butcher, Samuel Kenyon.

—Bro. Shepherd, editor of the Vale Gazette, says he is now out of the swim and in the mud. The water in his office a few days ago, was over two feet in depth.

—The members of the Odd Fellows of Burns are requested by the D. of R. to meet them at the Odd Fellows hall Friday evening the 30th inst., to perfect arrangements for the Odd Fellows anniversary festival.

—Albert Rieneman is spoken of as a probable candidate on the populist ticket for the office of county judge. Mr. Rieneman has many friends in this county, he is capable, honest and trustworthy and we think would creditably fill any county office.

—We received a letter, two days since from our friend George Duncan, a resident of Silver Lake, who spent a good part of this last winter with friends and relatives in this county. He writes he left here the 2nd of this month and found the roads, from here to his home, in a miserable condition. He writes that in going over the divide between Paisley and Silver Lake, when he got to that point where he could see the beautiful lake covered with geese, swan and other fowls, screaming and flying in every direction, he was very much elated, and a feeling of satisfaction and contentment, pervaded his whole being.

Parties wishing to purchase a small band of gentle dairy cattle would do well to call and see Austin Goodman for a bargain before going elsewhere.

Van Items.

VAN, Oregon, March 23rd, '94.
The weather has been very much like spring yesterday and to day.

The people here about are quite elated over the prospect of a new flouring mill this summer.

Mrs. J. P. Gearheart, who has been very ill since Jan. 1st., is reported feeling a little better.

School meeting will be held at the Wolf Creek school house March 30th, object, to elect one director and hire a teacher.

Has any one seen any crickets yet? VANITY.

Lawn Items.

LAWEN, Oregon, March 19, '94.
I send a few items as I have seen nothing from here for some time.

At our regular school meeting, Mr. A. S. Swaine was elected director and J. L. Sitz, clerk.

The water is higher here now than we have ever known it.

The bridge on the Malheur slough has gone out leaving the Crane Creek and Happy Valley roads useless.

The cattle that have wintered in the swamps look very well considering the winter.

Sheep men are having some trouble getting their sheep to the hills because of the water.

Prof Fegtlv's school will close the 23rd. inst., if not terminated sooner by high water.

Miss R. C. Dickenson will teach the spring term in district 23.

Some of our neighbors are moving out and it looks now as if all will have to go. C.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the hour of 1 o'clock p. m. is the time set for the respective primaries of the democratic party to meet on March 31 1894, to elect delegates to the county convention. I also think it proper that I should state that in the election of alternates it should be understood what regularly elected delegate each alternate is to represent.

J. L. CROSS,
Charman.

NOTICE.

Is hereby given to whom it may concern that the promissory note given by D. L. Shirk and F. M. Shirk, to C. W. Parrish for the sum of $600 dated the day of May 1892 due on or before two years from date has been paid, said note is supposed to have been lost in the U. S. mails, if now in the possession of any one or in existence this notice makes it necessary that said note should be presented immediately to D. L. and F. M. Shirk or otherwise be considered cancelled.

Dated at Burns Ore. this the 22nd day of January 1894.
