THE TOLEDO BLADE. And book containing all the Nasby Letters for One Dollar.

In answer to a general demand from all parts of the United States, the Toledo Blade has published in one volume, cloth bound, all of the "Nasby Letters" ever written by the late D. R. Locke, omitting perhaps a few unimportant letters on local or forgotten topics. Only a few of these letters were ever published in book form. Everybody has read some of them, but who has read all of them? The book contains over 500 large pages, and all the Nasby Letters written during a period of twenty-five years; also a portrait of D. R. Locke from his last photograph. It would sell at one dollar or more, but will never be placed on sale. One hundred thousand copies are now being printed and bound, and one copy will be sent postpaid by mail free to every person who this winter remits one dollar for the Weekly Blade one year. Everybody invited to send for a specimen copy of the Weekly Blade, which will give a full description of the book "The Nasby Letters."

THE TOLEDO WEEKLY BLADE is the best and most popular weekly newspaper published in this country. It has the largest circulation of any weekly newspaper, and goes to every State, Territory and nearly every county of the Union. Only one dollar a year including the above mentioned book free. Send postal to THE BLADE, Toledo, Ohio, for a free specimen copy of the paper. Send the addresses of your friends also.

IT PAYS. There are single retail shoe stores in our cities which sell 2,000 pairs of shoes a day, making a net profit of $20,000 a year. We have a plan that will sell a great many more of the clear profit to our ladies, misses and children's shoes. It is a plan that is a pair, and on our part and be.
