If politics isn't a humbug and the leading politicians of to day humbugs, will some one please define what a humbug is?

The republicans of Burns talk quite confidently of the sure success of their state ticket. Brother remember "there is many a slip between the cup and lip."

Sheep shearing will begin in this county in a few days, the shearers don't expect to get over 4 or 5 cents this year, still a fast shearer can make good wages at these figures.

Messrs. McEntyre and Post are preparing their brick yard west of town near the cemetery. Mr. McEntyre informs us he finds at that place an excellent quality of dirt for brick.

Coxey's army is still increasing. A regiment of women have been added, but it seems a little singular this feminine commonwealth force should select a man for its colonel.

Politics is the order of the day everywhere, but not so at the Jewelry Store the order there is this: Clocks, Watches, Jewelry, Spectacles, Machine Needles, Silver-ware, Picture Frames and Photographs taken by W. N. Jorgenson.

Lee Wilson, a prisoner confined in the Canyon City jail made his escape a few days ago. A few hours after his escape the sheriff started in pursuit and captured the prisoner at his brother's ranche a few miles from Canyon.

Many persons who have taken ranches near the lakes, have been compelled to move back to the foothills on account of high water. This works a great hardship, on such, because it is not likely they will be able to put in any kind of crops.

A lady, says an exchange, was recently, on her birth-day anniversary, presented a piano lamp by her husband, who was very much flattered by her naming the lamp for him, until asking her reasons for doing so. "Well," said she, "you know, dear, it has a good deal of brass about it, it is handsome to look at, requires a good deal of attention, is remarkably brilliant, is sometimes unsteady on its legs, liable to explode when only half full, flares up occasionally, it is always out at bed-time and is bound to smoke."

The artesian well is resting from its labors, still we hope the undertaking will not be abandoned.

Dr McPheeters was called to the warm spring cattle ranche to visit a patient the latter part of last week, on his return he reported the patient doing well.

Miss Pollard won her suit. The jury awarded her $15,000, damages. Mrs. Brockbridge, it is stated, will immediately bring suit for a divorce, it is also stated she was nearly prostrated when he was on the witness stand, confessed the nature of his relation with Miss Pollard.

The democrats of Grant County have the following county ticket in the field; Judge G. L. Hazeltine, sheriff Patsy Daley, clerk F. P. Horsley, commissioner Sam Carpenter, treasurer O. P. Cresap, assessor J. A. Taylor, school superintendent W. F. Loder, surveyor J. W. Mack.

R. F. Motley was in our town the latter part of last week. In conversation with him we learned he had just recently returned from South Carolina whither he had been with several car loads of horses which he disposed of in that state. He speaks in glowing terms of the south and southern hospitality and thinks strongly of making that country his future home.

The following is the republican state ticket: For governor W. P. Lord, secretary of state Harrison R. Kincaid, treasurer Phil Metschan, judge of supreme court Charles E. Wolverson, attorney general C. M. Idleman, superintendent of public instruction G. M. Irwin, state printer W. H. Leeds, congressman in our district W. R. Ellis, joint senator for Grant, Morrow and Harney A. W. Gowan, joint representative for Harney and Grant Orrin Patterson.

The idea held by some that women are prohibited by the state constitution from holding educational offices, we think has not sufficient foundation to sustain it, if such is the case our last legislature must have been composed of very ignorant material to pass an act allowing such offices to be held by women, the constitution certainly was examined, and had such an act conflicted with it, the fact would certainly have killed the bill. And Further we see in our exchanges that several other counties of this state as well as our county, have nominated women for the office of County School Superintendent.

The following from a London paper about W. F. Cody, is quite spicy: "The cablegrams announces that Col. Cody, who will be remembered in London, has been returned as mayor of Nebraska. No better selection could have been made. Col. Cody was a friend of a man called Boon, who discovered Kentucky in 18— After marrying the granddaughter of a distinguished gentleman known as Sitting Bull Frog, Cody was twice governor of Chicago, and at one time was mayor of the Arkansas legislature. He also served in the confederate army under Ben Butler, who so gallantly defended New Orleans against General Longstreet. The province of Detroit rewarded him for his military service by sending him to congress, where he introduced a bill for the relief of the citizens of Buffalo. It was in that way he got his name 'Buffalo Bill.' While Mr. Cody has a large ranch in St. Louis, he finds time for literature and writes for the Atlanta Monthly, a newspaper edited by Mark Twain, and Uncle Thomas Cabin, a gentleman who made fame by his negro dialect sketches."
