Mr. HERR is considered a great campaign orator and as such is always in demand by his party (republican.) In a speech a short time since delivered, by him, at Marquand, he allowed his partizan zeal to carry him, beyond the limits of endurance by an intelligent audience, by positive assertions of falsehoods plain to every hearer, in declaring the democratic party the sole cause of our present troubles, in the very face of the fact that a majority of both houses are democrats and favor a strict adherence to the Chicago platform, then we ask in all candor how can the blame rest with the party when the President backed by the party Mr. Herr upholds, holds the balance of power in the form of his prerogative, the veto power, sustained by the republican party?

And further does any intelligent thinking man suppose, for an instant, that had Harrison been elected, the condition of the country would have been otherwise? Knowing that this crisis has been gradually coming for a number of years caused by class legislation, started and carried to a finish, in this country, by the republican party.

The policy pursued by President Cleveland in the financial proceedings of our congress is precisely that which is advocated by Mr. Herr's party. Then how can we expect relief from that side of the house?

Mr. Herr's speech, and all such speeches, will certainly lessen the respect, with which his own party has heretofore regarded its policy, and will strengthen the democratic party, for the republican party says Cleveland is right while on the other hand a large majority of the President's own party declare him to be wrong.

Then why should the party be held responsible for the actions of one man, and honor the republican party for upholding this one man? We are persuaded to honestly express our thoughts—Mr. Herr or the republican party to the contrary notwithstanding—that the republican party is solely and wholly responsible, for the present state of distress in our midst. The Coxy movement grew out of republican mal-administration, killing the value of the silver dollar you can safely lay at the same door, laws enacted to make millionaires at the expense of the laboring class charge to the same, a centralization of wealth into the hands of a few causing distress, starvation, murder and suicide, originated in the brains of republicans and was successfully carried out by the party. Then for God sake! Mr. Herr or your kind call black, black.

DEMOCRACY.

The idea that a few persons in our midst advocate, that to be a democrat one must agree with the administration in every particular is simply more absurd than ridiculous, and more ridiculous than brainy. What do such men have to say of Bland, Mills, Vest and a host of others who are leaders in the democratic party? What do such men—and professing to be democrats—think of the large majority of the democratic party, for a big majority of the party condemn the veto power as used by the administration to crush proceedings of congress in the interest of the majority? Democracy claims as one of its vital principles that a majority shall rule. Then who has the right to dictate? Then again what do these democrats think of themselves in point of fact knowing they are in sympathy with the republican party? A party whose principles are entirely antagonistic to their own political opinions.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
