HARNEY, Ore., May 9, '94.

To whom it may concern; I here by notify the voters of Harney county that I have withdrawn my letter of acceptance of the nomination of County Clerk of Harney county which was tendered to me by the delegates of the populist convention on the 4th. day of April A. D. 1894, for the following reason:

After canvassing a portion of the county I have ascertained that there is a strong feeling prevailing among the voters of my own party, to leave the office of County Clerk blank and that they are not going to vote for me believing that their votes would be wasted. Believing that it is the desire of the majority of my friends in taking this course, and thanking them for their kindness shown me. I remain yours very respectfully.

Murder Of Sandy.

Frank Hunt, familiarly known here as "Sandy" was murdered, so report says, at Spokane a few days since. It will be remembered by our readers that several efforts were made by some one, last fall, to shoot Sandy while he was employed driving the stage on the Burns Ontario route and the last effort nearly proved fatal, to Sandy, as he was severely wounded, but recovered and went from here to Spokane, where we suppose his enemy followed him and, if the report is correct, succeeded in carrying out his threat, as Sandy told his friends here that some one, "had it in" for him and would finally kill him.

No particulars, of the killing, are given further than he was found dead, having been shot by some one. Perhaps we will get further news of the tragedy for our next issue. There is a sequel to the affirmation, made by Sandy that some one had threatened his life, that will come to light in the event of his death.
