HUNTINGTON Oreg., March 1, '94,

DEAR SIR:—We again call on you soliciting your business for 1894. Our Warehouse will have the same attention as formerly, all business entrusted to us, will be carefully looked after. Ship your goods in our care.

We continue the jobbing in Groceries, etc., and will be pleased to quote you prices at any time.

We buy our goods direct and will be pleased to divide Margins with you, thus giving you goods as cheap, or cheaper, than they can be placed here from Portland.

Your correspondence solicited. Respectfully, O. C. Co., J. H. Aitkin.

A high-class illustrated monthly magazine in the home is no longer a luxury. It is a necessity, and to meet the demands created by this necessity, THE COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE, giving yearly, as it does, 1536 pages of reading by the ablest living authors, with over 1200 illustrations by clever artists, has stepped into the breach, with a reduction in its price that has tartled the literary world.

The HERALD, fully alive to the needs of its patrons, has made special arrangements with this superb monthly, whereby it will receive orders for yearly subscriptions to both publications combined for the sum of $3.00.

The price of the great illustrated monthlies in the past has been $3.00 and $4.00 a year, and they were to be found only in the more pretentious homes. Our offer furnishes a help to all families, no matter how modest their means, to keep in touch with the greatest minds of the world, as The Cosmopolitan has today the strongest regular staff of any existing periodical. Send orders to THE HERALD, Burns Ore.

—To Subscribers—The HERALD and Rural Northwest both for the price of the HERALD. The Rural Northwest is a good newsy paper devoted to the wants of the agriculturist. Now is the time to pay up your arrears' and one year in advance and get an additional paper in the bargain.
