

HAS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER IN THIS COUNTY.

Local News.

—Mrs. William Harris has been very ill for some time.

—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Locher died yesterday.

—On last Saturday Squire Davis and Mr. Crawford of Harney were visitors in Burns.

—E. H. King and James Sparrow were among the visitors to our town in the last week.

—Call on Canady and McGee at City Meat market for fresh meats, bacon, bologna sausage, etc.

—Broady Johnson says, "the only salvation for democrats, now, is in worshipping the late elected 'Lord.'"

—Joe Morris says that "Buckland wheeling" is fun to a looker-on but a tiresome reality to the one doing the wheeling.

—There is no real danger of small pox here but it is much better to guard against a scourge than to get rid of one. Next week circuit court convenes and we want all who have business here to feel safe in coming, hence the action of the city authorities.

—In the issue of June 6th in publishing a land decision in the case of E. D. Newsome it reads "the land has been open for settlement since May 30th 1893." It should be 1884 instead of 1893.

—The Telegram, Sunday Welcome and Tomahawk, are loud and bitter in condemnation, of the ways and means resorted to, by the republican party in procuring votes at the recent election in Portland.

—The Welcome says, "the election on the 4th. was simply a farce. The counting is what finally did the business. The bribing and repeating were scarcely sufficient to save some of the republicans, but the partisan count completed the political rape, and made the steal sure."

—Grant, a town of 200 inhabitants, 23 miles east of The Dalles, in Sherman county, was almost entirely swept away by the Columbia on the 13th of this month. The greatest loss is a $75,000 distillery.

—Mrs. Goodman returned several days since from quite an extended visit in Baker county to friends and relatives. Inadvertently we neglected mentioning her return in the issue of last week, but it is not too late to welcome her back home.

—The republicans are jubilant over the republican victory in this state. And declare the next presidential election will be a republican land slide. Don't crow before you pass over the bridge, boys, there is many a slip between cup and lip.

—James Buckland arrived in our town Saturday morning on a wheel-barrow propelled by Joe Morris. Both the gentleman are residents of Harney 14 miles East of this place. Joe was paying a wager made on the office of County Judge, the loser to wheel his successful competitor from Harney to Burns on a wheel-barrow.

—The democrats of this county won the state ticket with one exception, Phil Metcham, the republican candidate for State Treasurer.

World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

—A republican newspaper says "this congress will do nothing to restrict the worthless immigration of foreigners to this country. Oh Lord! give us a rest. The republicans have for 30 years been dumping the very worst class of foreigners on our soil, and now comes a black republican paper with the exclamation before stated. Gall is no name for such audacity."

—The council, at a special meeting yesterday quarantined the town on account of the report of small pox in Lakeview and vicinity. Indians are forbidden to enter the city limits during the quarantine and all parties coming in from Lakeview and California or from any reported infected district are prohibited from entering town.

—Doag Baker, a resident of Silver Creek, recently returned from California where he was several months selling horses taken from here by him. He reports the horse market in that section very poor indeed. He visited the San Francisco Fair and was very much pleased with the exhibits, and further stated that many thousand idle vagrants attracted to that city by the fair, would, when the fair closed, be cast upon the surrounding community to beg, steal, or otherwise obtain a livelihood. He also passed, while coming home, many families traveling in this direction seeking homes and hoping to better their condition.

—The Sunday Welcome of June the 9th. has the following: The election in 1891, which the morning daily criticised with such scathing rebuke, was clean and decent compared to the election last Monday. The laws then in force were not violated so shamefully and outrageously as the present laws were in the recent contest. Yet the same paper now rejoices, and ridicules any complaint. It should have been a very large sum that effected such a change—

Attention Troop A.

The secretary of the Elkhart Carriage and Harness Mfg. Co., of Elkhart, Ind., informs us that their prices will be lower for 1894 than ever. He wishes us to ask our readers not to purchase anything in the line of carriages, wagons, bicycles or harness until they have sent 4 cents in stamps to pay postage on their 112 page catalogue. We advise the readers of this paper to remember his suggestion.

—I. S. Geer and Co. have an excellent selection of garden seed from the firm of D M Ferry & Co.

—No more politics. Jorgenson has put off his trip to go up salt river till the last boat goes and he is to be found at the same old place repairing watches, clocks, sewing machines and any thing that comes along he also takes photographs at $4.00 per. doz. cabinet size:

Parties wishing to purchase a small band of gentle dairy cattle would do well to call and see Austin Goodman for a bargain before going elsewhere.

RILEY, Oregon.

MARRIED—At the spacious residence of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Cecil on Monday evening June 4th, at 6:30 o'clock, Charles Lillard and Miss Gracie Bedell were united in marriage. This event attracted no little attention because of the prominence of the contracting parties, and the universal esteem and respect of this community for them. Mr. Lillard is a young man of sterling worth and wealth a great influence in our midst. His bride is a very charming and accomplished lady and a member of one of our leading families. The wedding was entirely a family affair. The commodious apartments being beautifully decorated by Mrs. Cecil. They were married in the parlor under the arching of the window. Squire J. A. Williams pronounced the beautiful ceremony that made them man and wife, after which congratulations followed thick and fast. The guests then partook of one of the most delicious and bountiful repasts in the form of a supper possible to provide. The writer extends congratulations and wishes the happy couple no cares greater than little ones. REX.

Wool Growers.

Dear Sir: Huntington has advantages for shipping and sale of wool, no other point in Eastern Oregon has, namely: Being the terminus of divisions, the point to which all rages are made east or west bound. We get same to Boston and east as do all points east to Caldwell and lower rates to Portland and San Francisco than the points east of us: Our rate to Boston is $1.90. We get same rates to Portland and San Francisco as does Baker City and a lower rate east than they.

The above are facts, no town can equal our advantages for shipping or selling. Advances made—hauling charges paid—wool insured immediately. Send your wool in our care.
Respectfully,
O. C. Co
