We Have The Best Government in the World.

Hie e? Let's see. If Uncle Sam did for the people what he promises to do at every Presidential election, we might voice the sentiment of the above caption. Things written or printed on paper read yery prettily when the writer has an ax to grind, such as letters of acceptance written by aspirants to the others of congress and president.

Nine tenths of office seekers when tendered a nomination for either of their rights and liberties the offices named will promise anything and swear by the powers that the will of the people is law with them. Poor dupes! The willing tools of a body of shylocks who for selfishness greed and contemptable villiany, would his hat and cain and started to put to shame, the original shylock and make him hunt his hole and bemoan the degeneracy of the hu man family of this age. The plans of the corporations were well laid assisted by our glorious government and republican party, and at the completion of the R. R. only waited developement, which followed quickly and carried ruin and devastation in its track.

A cyclone never carried such destruction, misery, cruelty and utter havoc, crushing men's pres pects and women's souls. But this terrible destruction blighting the fond-st hopes of the settler and family, was caused by money cor potations helped by the glorious government, consequently no blame should be attached to this insignia of pure and undefiled shylock 18m. The settler at the proper time proved up on his claim and to enable him to buy farming machinery as a help to forward his property and with the R.
