

HAS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER IN THIS COUNTY.

Local News.

I. S. Geer and Co. have an excellent selection of garden seed from the firm of D M Ferry & Co.

Assessor Miller and wife have not yet returned.

Sheriff Gittings, so we are informed, has chosen John Vaughn for his deputy.

Mr Mathews, our butcher, has a family, and he with his family are now bona-fide residents of our town.

Mr. Ed Test, ex county clerk of Malheur county, with his family arrived here the latter part of last week on a visit to Register Jones and family. Messrs. Jones and Test are brothers-in-law.

Dr. Horton has moved his drug store together with its contents and placed it on the north side of John Robinson's barber shop, where he will dispense drugs and medicines until his stone building is completed on the old site.

Our school bonds have been placed a firm in Spokane have bought them and as soon as the necessary papers have been signed the money will be placed in a Portland bank. The transaction would have been consummated ere this but the tie up in the railroad prevented. This means a good school building for our town.

Samuel Kenyon has sold his meat market to K. A. Mathews an old experienced butcher. Mr. Kenyon recommends his successor very highly and requests us to thank our citizens for their patronage and kindly feelings towards him.

Leon Brown returned last Sunday from his visit to San Francisco, Portland and other places on this coast. He is looking fine and says he had a splendid time. James McGowan, son of Geo. McGowan and nephew of John and Ed Martin accompanied him.

Mrs Capt Waters recently received a letter from her daughter Ida who is in California, stating that she was learning to cook. Mrs. Waters ventured to assert that she thinks Ida's efforts in the culinary department are for a purpose, and that purpose is likely to be one of the heads of her own household in the near future.

Sylvia Rebeka Lodge 200 F. surprised the Odd Fellow lodge last Saturday evening. After closing the lodge the members on leaving the Hall were met by a few lady members of the Rebeka branch, and forced back into the hall, but it did not take much forcing when we saw the ice cream freezers and baskets, which we were of the belief contained pie and cake. Suffice us to say we were soon enjoying the bountiful supply and thanking sincerely from our hearts the kindness and thoughtfulness of our very worthy sisters.

A Wintermier of Silvies, paid us a visit last week.

Jake Welcome is suffering with an attack of mumps.

The meetings are still going on at the M. E. Church.

The first new potatoes of the season, came to us yesterday from the garden of C. A. Sweek.

Charley Kenyon is still the chosen and popular deputy clerk of county clerk P. L. Shideler.

Mrs. M. N. Fegly has been slightly indisposed for the last week.

H. A. Dillard will soon live at home, and then we presume he will be like the old woman, "neither lend or borrow."

Mrs. A. A. Cowing is on the sick list, but we are informed not dangerously ill.

Miss Clara Stenger has had one or two slight hemorrhages since our last issue, but her condition at this time is not regarded as dangerous.

Loyd Culp has just finished painting Bro. Dillard's house, and it is an excellent job, showing taste, tact, and a familiarity with his vocation.

William Wooley and family came in on a visit to friends, last Sunday. Will left here yesterday afternoon for the ranch, leaving his family. Mrs. Wooley and the children will remain here probably a month.

An application will be made to Judge Fullerton, when the state circuit court meets at Coryallis for an order looking to the extension of the Oregon Pacific eastward into Crook County.

K. A. Mathews, who is now owner and proprietor of our meat market, was raised in the business and proposes keeping a first class market in every respect and being thoroughly familiar with the business only needs the patronage and encouragement of our citizens to have a market our town and its proprietor will be proud of.

W. D. Buchanan on Soldier Creek has a nice enviable home. His fruit trees are doing well, his garden cannot be surpassed in this county. He has trees growing in the yard and around the garden, plenty of nice fragrant flowers, everything looking cosy and home like.

D. D. Levens brother of our neighbor H. C. Levens, has resigned the office of sheriff in his—Douglas county. His reason for so doing, as we gather from Douglas county exchanges, was the urgent request of his mother, who is now a very aged lady, that he should do so. She feared he endangered his life in the execution of the duties of that office, in these distressing times and national disturbances.

Our mail is now coming regular and we presume from information we get through exchanges that the backbone of the great strike is broken. Many leaders of the strike, and strikers charged with riotous conduct, murder and rapine have been arrested at the instance of government authority, and are now languishing in prison and having a taste of the bitter that follows the sweet.

P. F. Stenger and T. A. McKinnon who left here some time since, taking a band of horses for eastern markets, shipped at Huntington on the 12th of this month. They shipped to Newcastle Indiana. Mrs. Stenger received a letter from her husband the latter part of last week, dated at Cheyenne, expressing a hope that the strikers would not interfere on the way to Newcastle. Both Mr. Stenger and T. A. McKinnon are among our most enterprising citizens and we wish them success.

W. H. Culp of Poison Creek informs us of a fatal accident, which happened near Chandlerville Ill. which resulted in the death of his brother O Culp, a resident of that place. Mr. O Culp, and another, hired a livery rig to go to Beard's town near there and on the road the accident occurred. The conflicting reports of the papers and evidence given at the inquest, led the authorities to believe that it was probably not an accident but murder for possession of what money and valuables he had on his person. This suspicion led to the arrest of Thos W. Staley and another charged with crime of murder. On the person of one of these men was found the watch belonging to Mr. Culp.

J. F. Boyle, photographer, now located here for three or four weeks is doing work of a superior quality. His price is $3 per dozen cabinet size. He makes a specialty of family groups and baby photos, and guarantees his work. Those desiring work in his line are invited to call and examine his samples.

No more politics. Jorgenson has put off his trip to go up salt river till the last boat goes and he is to be found at the same old place repairing watches, clocks, sewing machines and any thing that comes along he also takes photographs at $4.00 per doz., cabinet size.

Notice To Taxpayers. After the first Monday in September 1894, all tax collections will be forced. The county authorities have been very lenient and now the last call is made. Save cost by making payment at once. The Sheriff has no discretion in the matter and must comply with the law.
