Rev E. A. Paddock has deter Binger Hermann mined to found a college in Weiser and he will start it on a small way this winter in the church, beginning October 2nd, but next year it is hoped to have some suitable buildings ready. A splendid site is controlled by Mr. Paddock and his friends, and they have reason to believe that they will receive the as istance necessary to put the col lege in working order. The institu tion will be non sectarian though under the special care of the Con gregational deno nination.
