

HAS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER IN THIS COUNTY.

Local News.

Notice the adv. of the Pioneer Drug Store in this issue. Notice the adv. of L. B. Culp proprietor of the City Meat Market of this issue. Just received at Worthington's a full line of books, stationary and notions. The West Street Hotel in Seattle was burned on the 27th resulting in the death of sixteen persons ten men three women and three children.

NOTICE.

All accounts and Notes now due me must be paid by November 1st. After that date same will be placed in hands of my Lawyers for prompt collection.

We noticed several of Harney's citizens get off the stage this morning viz: Robert Drinkwater, Mr. Hills, James Buckland and A. W. Howser.

Judge Fee is pushing the business of the circuit court with his usual activity. So many witnesses to be heard in the criminal case now in progress makes it necessarily tedious and slow work.

MARRIED—At the French Hotel Burns, by W. C. Byrd J. P. at 7:30 o'clock P. M. on Monday the 29th inst. William Gearhart and Eliza Metcalf. The Herald joins in with the friends of the bride and groom in wishing them many happy and prosperous days.

Squire Davis, of Harney, says he is populist grand jury or no grand jury, and that in less than five years the poor man will be disfranchised and the women will take up the franchise club, and hammer the life out of all capitalists, monopolies and ring masters, and the poor man will stay at home and sing "Hush-a-by baby" etc.

Friends of Mr Sam Kenyon and family are now receiving letters from members of the family who are now at Salem and the children in school. They are well satisfied in Salem, and speak well of the school and also spoke of our friends Mr. and Mrs. Winans, and Eloise Huntington whose home is here but she is now in Salem going to school.

John I. Newman, who was absent on the way between here and the R. R. came in this morning on the Ontario Stage, having had a subpoena served on him for his immediate presence here as a witness in the Loren Parker case. John left his freight and team on Cow Creek.

THURSDAY MORNING—The jury in the criminal case of the State vs. Loren L. Parker brought in a verdict this morning of manslaughter. The Judge will sentence the prisoner Saturday evening, next, at half past seven p. m.

For Chop Feed, Grain and Flour go to the North Meat Market.

LOYD CULP, Proprietor.

The court house will be completed in a short time. The finishing lumber lately bought of John W. Sayer is pronounced by the carpenters at work on the building as being superior in ever particular to any they have ever worked in this country.

Dennis Orman, W. Higinson, Chas. Leroy and Wm. Montgomery, all from the southern part of our county, are here as witnesses in the Potts criminal case. D. L. Shirk and J. G. Holloway were subpoenaed, the latter is not here yet, and the former wrote the Judge that he would like to be excused if possible, because of sickness in his family, but that his sympathies were with Mr. Potts and if his presence was actually necessary he would come.

LAND DECISION.

Furnished by W. D. Harlan, Land Atty., Washington D. C. Mordcaei vs. State of Cal. Land more valuable for the stone found thereon than for agricultural or grazing purposes may be entered under the G & Stone act in a 3rd. 1878.

Asst. Secy. Sims

Circuit Court—Judge Fee presiding, Thornton Williams prosecuting attorney.

Grand Jury.—D. L. Grace, foreman, Jasper Davis, C. T. Miller, Jas. Gilbert, A. Topker, and Fred Lunberg; Ed Waters bailiff.

Atty's.—Including home lawyers, C. A. Sweet, Waters & Gowan, Geo. Hayes, Geo. Sizemore our home legal lights, Judge Dustin, C. W. Parrish.—Hicks and John Biggs of Canyon City, and M. R. Biggs now of Prineville.

The grand jury have found several true bills, John E. Roberts three indictments for Abel and Prof. Newell one.

Civil Suit.—For recovery of money on account Peter Clemens vs. Hanley Bros, verdict for Plaintiff in the sum of $750.

The indictment cases found against John E. Roberts continued for the term.

A goodly number of civil cases continued for the term, not as we think, interesting to our readers, but which we will give when we publish proceedings in full.

The Jack Parker murder case now on trial we shall not take the liberty of making any expressions while it is in progress except to say we are satisfied the prisoner is having a fair and impartial hearing up to the present.

The case of Frank Wilson who was under bonds to appear before the grand jury was thrown out.
