The county court to day determined to reject the Court House, declaring the work inferior and not done in accordance with the contract. What will be the next step taken by the contractor, we are not able to publish in this issue, because we know not yet, what he will do in the matter.

Milo Cushing, who settled upon a claim which proved to be road land, but he made settlement, before the selection on the east side of the river, was made by the road company, has received from the Hon. Land Commissioner a decision in his favor subject to appeal in 60 days. There is no doubt but that all the settlers, settling on road land, upon the east side of Silvie's river, prior to the selection of the company to lands on that side of the river, will get their land, as the road company, reserved 133,000 acres to which it is entitled, from which to select lands in lieu of the lands taken by actual settlers.

Tomorrow is Thanksgiving day. What has the poor laboring class to be thankful for? Crowded the in large manufacturing towns and in cities, without food, without proper clothing, without hope of bettering their condition. Oh yes! But the functionaries at the head of the government who have promised so much to the middle and laboring class, have something to be thankful for viz: that their bulwarks, ramparts, and homes have not been raised to the ground and that the coat of tar feathers which they richly deserve has been deferred, and they are suffered to celebrate one more thanksgiving.

Please do not forget that Jorgenson has the best lot of spectacles, eye glasses, gold pens and holders and magic pencils, etc., etc.
