

HAS THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER IN THIS COUNTY.

Local News.

—William Wooley is in town this week.

—Mart Brenton is having his dwelling improved.

—There will be a Masquerade Ball at Caldwell's Hall on Jan. 1st. 1895.

—Mrs. John Daly and her mother Mrs. Robertson, both of Drewsey are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thompson this week.

—Rev. C. P. Bailey, baptist minister, made several converts to his faith while here. The following were immersed in the Warm Springs last Sunday. H. A. Dillard and wife, Mrs. A. A. Cowing, Mrs. Geo. Fry, Miss Nora Gowan and D. L. Grace.

—We made a visit, of inspection yesterday, to the Red Front Livery Stable, and found everything in apple-pie order. Mr. Cal Geer the proprietor is getting his share of custom, because customers know how to appreciate a well kept, stable.

—J. Durkheimer will pay the highest Cash price for your County Warrants.

Last Notice.

TIME WILL BE EXTENDED TO ALL OWING ME UNTIL DEC. 1ST SHOULD NOT BE ADDED AFTER THAT DATE. DON'T COMPLAIN OF NOT HAVING OUR NOTICE. J. DURKHEIMER.

—News was brought in yesterday morning by the stage driver on the Ontario line, that Milo Cushing, who is on the road between here and Huntington, his team loaded with freight for this place, met with an accident. In some way he was thrown from the wagon fracturing three ribs.

—R. A. Hendricks informs us he is going to Weiser to engage in the real estate business in that town. Mr. Hendricks is one of our best citizens and we are sorry to lose him but still we wish him success, wherever he may be.

—The Widow Smyth, mother of Geo., Pressly and Rye, was taken with pneumonia at the Narrows last Sunday night. She was on her way home from this place, in company with her son, and was taken sick at Mr. Hembree's where they had stopped for night. Dr. Marsden was called to see her, and from him we learned her condition. He does not consider her dangerous, but still the fact of her age, she is now an old lady, taken into consideration and pneumonia generally so fatal, we fear the chances are against her.

—Messrs Hogan, Dibble and Johnson all of Silver Creek, paid a visit this week to our saw mill and loaded 6 or 8 wagons with lumber, for building and fencing purposes.

—J. F. Boyle, photographer, is still here. A rare opportunity is presented to all who have not already supplied themselves with samples of his excellent work. Remember his prices, $3.00 per doz. for cabinets. He guarantees to please even the most fastidious.

—Dr. Horton's drug store is now completed. The Dr. is proud of his building and should be, because it is the best and nicest finished building in the town. Mr. Ferguson did a first class job of masonry, and plastering. Mr. Taylor did the inside carpenter work, and is willing that every joint and part of his work be examined particularly. He has no fears as to the opinion of the public regarding his ability as a mechanic.

—The following is the batch of criminals, sent over the road to the penitentiary, from Baker county, the last term of the circuit court ended a few days since: William Merrill, eight years, for robbery and assault. Henry Benson, two years for incest. Bud and Frank Lowry one year each, for larceny.

STOP!

At Jorgensons is the best lot of Holiday Goods for the price that ever was put up for sale in Burns. Go and see.

LEE CALDWELL.

—We think it is the duty of the town authorities to give every able-bodied man something to do. If, in the course of events, we have a man or men, who seemingly has no calling, profession or trade, and we are at sea to know how they or he lives, then we think it is the duty of the town "dads" to look into the matter, for the poor fellow might be starving and too proud to work, and only waiting a chance to pilfer a few dollars either by cheating some unsuspecting sheep-herder or "greeny" at cards, or in any other way to obtain existence, except work. Such individuals could do good work on our streets and save the tax payers a few dollars.

—P. F. Stenger and Chas. Lillard returned last Saturday. Our readers have already been informed through our columns, that these two gentlemen were east with horses. Neither one of them sold all their horses, Mr. Stenger received a telegram from home, and thought circumstances demanded his presence here, and leaving the remainder of his band of horses, in charge of Frank Stauffer, he started immediately for home. Mr. Lillard left his partner Mr. Jacobs in charge and hurried home to the bed side of his sick wife, and to his great joy and satisfaction found her convalescent. Lillard and Jacobs, having been charged much higher for freight cars than what they bargained for, have brought suit for damage, etc., which prevents the sale of the horses until a hearing is had and also requires the presence of either Mr. Jacobs or Lillard, so Mr. Jacobs we presume will be absent for some time.

John Day flour at C. H. Voegtly's for sale at $6.00 a barrel, cash. This offer holds good for the next thirty days.

VAN, Oregon, Nov., 30th '94. The crossing here seems to give general satisfaction as far as we have heard.

New houses are springing up like magic in this neighborhood. Mr. Anderson's house is nearing completion. Mr. J. P. Gearheart says he will have one ready for Xmas dance and Mr. Marks contemplates building this winter.

Not much demonstration over Thanksgiving in this neighborhood, guess we all felt duly thankful though.

VANITY.

OMAHA, Nov. 10th, '94. W. P. Wood & Son.

Green Castle, Ind.

Dear Sirs: Replying to your favor of 6th inst: We have had a general rule in force not to accept shipments of Range Horses without prepayment but it does not apply to your shipments. We have always accepted your horses and will continue to do so. If you hear of any trouble about this at any time, let me know.

Yours very truly,

H. A. SNYDER, Gen'l Agent

Digest Of Land Decision.

Furnished by W. D. Harlan, Land Attorney, Washington, D. C.

A declaration of residence at a specified place, for the purpose of voting there, precludes a subsequent claim of residence, at the same time, at another place in order to secure title to a tract under the homestead law.

Acts of settlement induced by knowledge of an impending contest cannot be accepted as in bona fide compliance with the requirements of the homestead law.

An affidavit of contest should set forth a definite charge which, if proven, will warrant cancellation of the entry in question.

Ass't Sec'y SIMS.
