

It was rumored at one time that Mr. Dolph's managers—who they are seems hard to find out, we presume, however the gentleman thought himself so popular he would need no managers—claimed that Marion county was solid for Dolph. From the following letter printed in the Capital Journal of the 26th, it appears that there is not one Dolph republican in Woodburn precinct. The letter reads:

DOLPH MEN SCARCE.

WOODBURN, Dec. 26, 1894.

EDITOR JOURNAL: Your paper of December 22, is now on my desk—I wish to congratulate you when you say "Portland and the Oregonian are not Oregon." This suits Woodburn republicans to a dot. Please smash the Portland ring and elect a silver senator. I think I understand the wants and wishes of the republicans of Woodburn precinct when I say there is not a Dolph republican in this precinct. Give us Fulton or Tongue and send Dolph to the rear. You would be surprised if you had tested the situation here, to see how few Dolph's friends are in this part of the country. I learn from the Abiqua precinct that there are no Dolph men there. L. G. BARRON.

The question of whether "Little Billy" Mahone is more powerful than Congress has been revived by the attempt that is being made by the committee on Public Buildings and Grounds of the House and Senate to agree upon a site for a new Government Printing Office. For four years Mahone has been powerful enough to prevent any steps being taken towards the erection of a G. P. O., because the House would not agree to buy at $1.50 some ground he bought for about 15 cents a foot, and upon which he has not for years paid one cent of taxes. His hold upon republican Senators is doubtless largely political, but it is suspected that his hold upon democratic Senators who belong, as Mahone himself does, to what is locally known as "John Chamberlain's poker-playing crowd," is based upon something very different. At any rate his influence has proven more powerful in this matter than it was in any thing when he held the balance of power in the Senate and made the notorious bargain that landed him in the republican party. His control of this matter has been very galling to democrats generally, and a strong effort is being made to end it.

The news received by the Congressional Campaign committee, has been very favorable, some of it unexpectedly so. The candidates in several districts which for one or another reason has been considered as certain to be lost, have reported them as certain to be carried by the democrats.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

A old physician, retired from practice, having long lived in his hands by an honest man, the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this noble and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to any who desire it, this remedy, in German, French or English, with full directions for its use, and a complete list of agents by mail. I have two little grand children who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel troubles. I was myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within twenty-four hours I was out of bed and doing my house work. Mrs. W. L. Dunagan, Bonanza, Hickman Co., Tenn. For sale by H. M. Horton.

While in Topeka last March, E. T. Barber, a prominent newspaper man of La Cygne, Kan., was taken with cholera morbus very severely. The night clerk at the hotel where he was stopping happened to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and gave him three doses which relieved him and he tinks saved his life. Every family should keep this remedy in their home at all times. No one can tell how soon it may be needed. It costs but a trifle and may be the means of saving much suffering and perhaps the life of some member of the family. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by H. M. Horton.
