G. W. Noble of Paulina Beaver Creek, Crook county, registered at The Burns this morning. Mr. Noble has just returned from the east where he has been with horses, and reports the market very dull.

Young Parker who was sent from this county to the insane asylum just one year ago, is here again in charge of Mr. Swain this is the second or third time Parker has made his escape from the asylum and come home. It is now getting rather monotonous and expensive to this county and we think the asylum officials should be warned and entreated to keep a careful watch over Mr. Parker so as to keep him there until cured.

—Information received from our Assessor, Samuel Miller, who returned home from Salem last Monday where he had been attending the State Assessor's Convention. When Mr. Miller left the convention had not gotten through with the entire business before it. The state board of equalization, reduced the assessment on horses, in this county 10 per cent, cattle 5 per cent and sheep 20 per cent. Mr. Miller speaking of the office said he did not while at the convention urge the necessity of the office being a salaried one. Though when the question was brought up, he did not make any objections. Mr. Miller reports lots of mud in the Valley. The snow extends on the route he came home, from here to Pendleton.

his son and sister in the building consumed by fire.

A large crowd had assembled in the Crisman hall, because of a Xmas tree festival. While every one present, children and grown persons were enjoying themselves, little thinking of what a dreadful calamity was about to befall them, some one in order to get a better view of what was going on, climbed on a bench so as to get higher up, his head struck a lamp overturning it.

Of course the oil immediately took fire, and everything in the room being dry, the room was soon a mass of flames. Soon all was confusion and excitement. There being on one door of egress, men women and children made for this one place of exit, many were trampled under foot in the head long rush to the door. The fire was between the majority of the crowd and the door, and many persons were so excited they rushed into the flames. The report now is 41 persons were burned to death and 15 injured, probably the half of the injured will die. The dead are:

J. J. Buick and daughter, Mrs. John Buick and two children, Mrs. Owsley and two children, Mrs. Howard and two children, Mrs. Mary Snelling and child, W. O. Hearst and wife, Mrs. Labrie and two children, Miss McCauley, Ed Brown, Frank West wife and two children, Mrs. Coshaw, Mrs. Ella Ward and child, Robert Sinall, W. C. Martin and wife, Mrs. Nettie Williams and child, Mrs. Payne, Frank Horning, Mrs. U. F. Abshier, Mrs. Ward, Ira Hamilton, Frank Ross mother and sister, Mrs. Gus Schröder and child. It is thought the following will die of their injuries; Robert Snelling and sister Edward Payne and son. The hall was the second story of the building, the lower floor occupied by Crisman Bros merchants.

A Legislative Session

provokes more newspaper comment than almost any other subject of public interest. The last two Oregon law making bodies afforded much material for interesting discussion, and the next general assembly will be no exception to the rule. Whatever occurs the public knows that the Daily and Weekly Capital Journal of Salem will give correct reports of its work as well as intelligent discussion of the same. If you want to know what is done, how it is done, and why, you should read the Capital Journal.

It is the first One Cent Daily published on the Pacific coast, and is conducted in the interest of the people. The Daily will be sent you a year for $3.00, four months for $1.00 per year. Like the Daily it is payable cash in advance, and no paper will be sent after your time expires. Positively "no pay no paper." The Journal is a modern newspaper run on modern methods. It is conducted in the interest of the people editorially as well as in a business sense. Its editor being a member of the lower house, his editorial work will be doubly interesting this winter. Order it at once.
