Plenty of Time for Purrant.

Durrant will spend several quiet selection of violin and weeks in the county jail before he strings is placed on trial for his life for the murder of Blanche Lamont and Minnie Williams. The police will not hurry him to trial, desiring to give him abundant time to prepare for his defense. The case will, therefore, not be call d until July. Chief of Detectives Lee said today that the supreme court has passed strictures on the police department for having brought to speedy trial Fredricks, who shot Bank Teller Herrick. Though Lee believes the criticism unjust, he said the supreme court would be given no opportunity for finding the same fault in Durrant's case.

He added that the case of the prosecution is complete, and it is ready for trial at any time. The police are dissatisfied with the evidence of Organist King. who, in an | to as onish the most incredulouss effort to shield Durrant, stated at the preliminary examination that her neighbors and examination of he detected the odor of escaping goods. gas in the church on April 3d, although this statement is contradicted by the janitor and by two plumbers.

Threatening letters have been received by the school gir s who identified Durrant as Blanche Lamont's escort from school on the day of her disappearance. The girls have been warned that if they testify against Durrant again, they will receive physical violence -Idaho Statesman.
