DROWNED HIS WIFE.

Grant's Pass, May 21—Charles Fiester, age 68, deliberately drowned his wife near this city yesterday, in the presence of their three young children, the eldest of whom was 10 years old.

The crime grew out of family troubles of long standing. The pair had been separated for some time but Fiester came to this city and persuaded his wife to go to Merlin, where he was logging, and keep house for him. She consented to go for a week, and they started to Merlin, nine miles distance, with the three small children. After going about five miles they quarreled bitterly, and Mrs. Fiester started back for Grant's Pass, but was soon caught by Fiester and dragged to a hole of water, about three feet deep, near the track and held under the water until dead. After the woman was dead the man claims to have tried to drown himself, but failed, and sitting down on the track sent the children to Merlin to tell the folks what he had done. He remained until the crowd came up from Merlin, and then came to Grant's Pass and gave himself up to Sheriff Hiatt.

As talked freely about the matter to every one, and says he is ready to die. He has resided at Merlin for a number of years and always seemed to be a good citizen.

HOSTILITIES BEGUN.

Red Cliff, May 27—The first open rupture in the much talked of sheep and cattleman's war in Routt county has occurred. Four men were badly wounded, two of whom may die of their injuries.

The news was brought by a messenger who came for medical assistance. The messenger could give but few details of the affair. Following are the wounded: William Matha, Tom Dice, John Winslow and Alex Winslow. The scene of the encounter was 20 miles above Wolcott, on the Sheep Horn. Feeling is so intense that fighting is expected at many points.—Statesman.

Denver, May 27—A special to the News from Wolcott, Colo., puts a different aspect upon the reported battle near there Sunday. Instead of growing out of the hatred between cattlemen and sheepmen it appears to have been simply a row among cow-boys.—Statesman.

Huntington To The Front.

To Patrons—Huntington is now the envy of competing points in a Railroad sense in particular, we have advantage over all, we are now a competing point for two R. R. lines the Union Pacific and O. R. and N. Co's. We have the choice of two roads and each one after your business. No better rates can be gotten at any point than here on wool and other goods send your wool to Huntington and get benefit in prices received by cut rates on either road the O. R. & N Co. will prevail on you to ship to other points on your road than Huntington thereby controlling your shipments and cutting off the U. P. Ry. and the O. R. & N. Co. agents may visit you and make statements to the contrary but bear in mind they are looking for their own interests not yours. No point offers greater advantages than Huntington. None can work for less wages, 10 point will have more wool buyers, our charges as low or lower than others, this being true is it possible considering above conditions that any point can do as well by you as Huntington? We are here to stay and give you square deals our past record is our recommendation. Don't be misled by agents or others statements ship your goods, wool etc. in our care.
