UNDESERVING OF PITY.

There was a man from North Dakota sitting near me on the veranda of a Cape May hotel when a mendicant with a wooden leg came along and took off his ragged old straw hat and began:

"Kind sir, I am not to blame for my present situation. From where you sit you can see the iron pier."

"Yes, I see it," replied the guest.

"About two hundred feet off the end of that pier, four years ago this month, a shark seized me while I was bathing and bit off my leg. He got hold of both of them, but I managed to save one—as you see. For months I languished in a hospital."

"You mean you were a patient in a hospital?"

"Yes, sir. I thought languished was the proper term, but you know best When I recovered I hadn't a dollar to my name and am now dependent upon the charity of the public. Sir, if you"—

"You say the shark seized you by both legs?" queried the man from Dakota.

"Yes, sir, he did. I was swimming about when all at once I felt both my legs seized as if in a vice. I gave utterance to a shriek of terror and"—

"That is, you cried out?"

"Yes, sir. To utter is to cry, I suppose, but if the term 'utter' is distasteful to you we will not use it. The shark had me by both legs, sir."

"Ah, he had you?"

"He did, sir. By a supreme effort I extricated my left leg from the maw of the voracious monster."

"That is, you yanked one leg free from his hold?"

"Yes, sir. I made a supreme effort and he was a voracious monster, but if you don't like the terms I won't use 'em.

"And you got your left leg free?"

"I did, sir."

"And left him to chaw up your right?"

"Yes sir. I am sorry to have to appear to you, but under the."—

"Not a blamed cent!" exclaimed the Dakota man, as he brought his hand down on his leg.

"But, sir. I am an unfortunate man!" persisted the mendicant.

"Can't help that That shark had you by both legs. It lay with you which leg to yank away. Any man who'll save his left leg when he can save his right is a blamed idiot, and he needn't come whining around me! I'm tender-hearted and willing, but I'll save my dollar for the man who saved his right leg Go on, sir—go right on with your left leg and don't try to make me responsible for your idiotic blunders!"—Detroit Eree Press.

The Cut-Throat.

All eyes were turned upon the coarse, squat ruffian, as if impelled by some terrible fascination.

Again the keen blade glittered in the air, and, as if nerved to desperation, the heavy hand closed convulsively upon the handle, and again the social outcast stabbed wildly.

With means of horror the terror stricken throng turned, sickened from the sight.

But the Chicago man kept on calmly—eating with his knife.—Puck.

As it struck Him.

Uncle Allen Sparks, while sauntering in a contemplative mood through the business part of town stopped in front of an old ramshacel ed four-story structure whose owners were making an effort to attract tenants by providing it with a galvanized iron cornice and a gaudy coat of paint.

"That reminds me," mused Uncle Allen, "of some ragged old bum borrowing a half-dollar and getting his hair and whiskers dyed."—Sunday Welcome.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of rmell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. America's Great Danger

AN ENGLISH COMMENTARY.

Said an eminent English scientist recently: "The danger that confronts the great American people to-day is not the possible adoption of a wrong financial policy for the nation, or the spread of socialism, or the increase of corruption among public men. All these are bad enough, to be sure, but they are as nothing compared to the terrible national disease—I had almost said national crime—of overwork. The mad rush for wealth is set at a killing pace, and thousands fall by the way every year.

You are likely to be one of the victims!

How do we know? Because it is the exception to find a man or woman of adult age in perfect health. Nervous Disorders are spreading with fearful rapidity. Among the symptoms, are—Backache, Biliousness, Cold Hands and Feet, Dizziness, Hot Flashes, Fluttering Sensation, Fainting, Headache, Hysteria, Irritability of the Heart, Melancholy, Failing Memory, Palpitation, Rheumatism, Short Breath, Sleeplessness, Nervous Dyspepsia, Sexual Debility, Fits, etc

REV. C. A. CARROLL, pastor First Baptist Church, Yellow Springs, O., writes as follows: "I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine for the past six months. I find it acts like a charm on the whole nervous system. I have not found its equal in giving immediate relief. Dr. Miles' little Nerve and Liver Pills only need a trial and they will recommend themselves to be the best pills in the market."

"For five years I have suffered from Nervous Prostration, I was unable to work or sleep. The first dose of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine gave me relief, and one thousand dollars would not cover the good it has done me."—JOHN MINCHER, Youngstown, Ohio.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is unequalled in CURING Nervous Diseases. It contains no opiates or dangerous drugs. Sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
