One on the Teacher.

A certain schoolmaster occasionally compares the achievements of his pupils with the work of noted men in their boyhood days, much to the scholars' disadvantage.

"Now John, have you solved the problem?" asked the teacher the other day.

"No, sir," replied the boy, "I can't."

"How old are you, John?"

"Sixteen," was the answer.

"Sixteen!" repeated the instructor. Sixteen and can't solve a simple problem like that! Why, sir, at your age George Washington was surveying the estate of Lord Fairfax."

The pupil looked thoughtful, but made no reply.

After the class was dismissed a class-mate inquired of him if Washington ever did anything else remarkable when he was sixteen.

"I don't know," responded the boy. "He was a surveyor when he was as old as I am, and when he was as old as our teacher he was president of the United States." Philadelphia Call.

NEW YORK WORLD.

The Twice-a-week Edition of the New York World has been converted into the Thrice-a-week. It furnishes 3 papers of 6 pages apiece, or eighteen pages every week, at the old price of One Dollar a year. This gives 156 paper a year for One Dollar and every paper has 6 pages eight columns wide or 48 columns in all. The Thrice-a-week World is not only much larger than any weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact it combines all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily with the attractive special features of a weekly.

Arrangements have been made by which we can furnish this paper and the Thrice-a-Week New York World both for $2.25 a year. Take advantage of this offer and get your own local paper and the Thrice-a-Week World at this special rate.
