HANDICAPPED BY SLEEP.

Last night people passing S. Barnum's store, on the west side of Kansas avenue, noticed a large man sleeping soundly in a large covered spring wagon near the street curb. He was stretched across the seat, and, while his position was not a comfortable one the man did not care. His broad chest rose and fell at regular intervals, which indicated deep slumber. Occasionally a whirring noise like the suppressed grunt of a pig escaped the sleeper. It was a snore, but not the ceiling destroying kind.

A close inspection would have revealed the chubby face of a man well advanced in years. His cheeks were covered with a thick growth of short gray hair, and his head with an old slouch hat. Then the observer would have been startled to find a strong resemblance to a man who was well known in public life in Kansas not long ago. The man looked like ex-Congressman Ben Clover, and, in truth, it was he.

Ex-Congressman Clover now drives the reform school wagon, and may be seen on the streets of Topeka every day. He got the place as a reward for political services rendered in the last campaign. He doesn't know anything about training boys, but Gov. Morrill's business administration gave him a job.

When Mr. Clover was in Congress he contracted the sleeping habit, and it made him famous. When an important measure was being considered he was wont to steal out into the anteroom and stretch his portly form on the luxurious cushions of a government sofa, and while his colleagues wrestled with some intricate question affecting their constituency, Congressman Clover, of Kansas, slept, and, it is said, snored, not softly or gently, but loud enough to be heard in the adjoining legislative hall.

Then Mr. Clover's constituency got angry and elected some one else, and since then he has been compelled to take his naps in less convenient places. Other people have contracted habits in Congress but it remained for Congressman Clover to make a departure and become, like Dickens fat boy, a confirmed sleeper.—Topeka State Journal.

In a recent letter to manufacturers Mr. W. F. Benjamin, editor of the spectator, Rushford, N. Y., says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of your own state, where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years since, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the side and chest and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit and unequalled by any other. They are for sale here by all druggists.

Scrofula in the Blood

Causes Glands of the Neck to Swell Up

This Trouble and a Case of Rheumatism Cured by Hood's.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"Dear Sirs: A little over a year ago I had a swelling come on the side of my neck. I was in very poor health generally and doctored two months with the family physician who said my complaint was a bilious attack. His treatment failed to help me so I determined to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. To my great joy, the swelling on the side of my neck disappeared. I was benefited for my other ailments. After taking three bottles of the medicine, I have not had a sick day since. I for one, recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to the afflicted."

BYRD & KING.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and is made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle.
