Local News.

—Many locals are crowded out in this issue because of the Institute work. This we thought best, for the reason that all are interested in the work of education.

—Chairs of all patterns and descriptions at the hardware store of Chas. Voegtly. 13-11

—New goods at the Johnson store, now under control of Henry Canaday. Just as cheap as ever or cheaper. Call and examine goods and get prices, and if suited buy.

—W. H. Hogan informs us that Carrel Cecil has nothing to do now-a-days except to pull wild hairs from above his eyebrows.

—Lytle Howard came in from Drewsey a day or two since. He informs us that Drewsey is "in it" politically morally and religiously.

—Mrs. Hamill-Handcock, and her class will give an entertainment on Friday evening at the school house chapel. We have not been given a program but understand half the proceeds go to the class.

—Waters & Gowan have a new official, colored, city plat from Messrs Williams, Woods & Linthicum. They can now furnish correct information respecting town property.

—Jorgensen has the finest and best lot of goods that ever came to Burns; go and see for yourself. He is also taking Cabinet Photos. at $3 per dozen. Do not forget to go and see what he has on hand.

—Mr. Hugh E. Swift and Miss Ahzubah Young were married in San Francisco, Oct. the 20. Miss Ahzubah Young was a resident of our town several years and has many friends here who wish her happiness, prosperity and a long and useful life.

—Jake Johnson, informs us that Fred Oakerman is enjoying a face other than the natural one, that is, in appearance, caused by the right hind foot of a mule. Jake says the present face does improve the appearance of Fred.

MARRIED.—On the afternoon of last Tuesday, the 19th, by Rev. Gibson, at the residence of B. R. Witzell, Mr. Jeff. Cawfield and Miss Zou Simmons, both residents of the Lake neighborhood, were joined in wedlock. The best wishes of THE HERALD follow the happy couple and we hope as few thorns as possible will be strewn in their pathway of life.

—Mr. Sylvester, we have forgotten his initials, a resident of our county, residing eight or ten miles north of Burns returned from California the latter part of last week accompanied by a better half whom he prevailed upon while there to go with him as a help-mate on the path of life. We wish Mr. Sylvester and lady every happiness.

To Patrons Burns.

The patrons of Burns school are hereby cordially invited to be present at the reopening of our school next Monday morning. We believe you may thus show your interest in the school, and that the pupils will realize this, and therefore will take up their work with greater energy. Come all and assist us in our opening exercises. School will open promptly at 9 o'clock.

THE REST OF THE FAMILY.—William and Benjamin Jordan were brought to the penitentiary yesterday from Burns, Harney county, to serve a short sentence for cattle stealing. The prisoners were brought by Deputy Sheriff John M. Vaughn, with H. E. Thompson and J. J. Donigan as guards. The sheriff and a third guard accompanied them to the railroad at Baker City, making a total expense of $492.40 for the trip.—Salem Journal.

A. Venator as we understand it, was one of the guards to Salem. We were not aware that the sheriff with any additional guards went with the prisoners to the R. R.

When a political party reaches a size where only one man can save it, it is questionable if it be worth saving.

The green goods men are progressing; instead of sending out letters at random, they use State directories containing the names of those likely to be caught with such bait.

There are so many papers claiming to exist solely for the benefit of the "dear public" that some enterprising publisher might make a fortune by adopting as a motto the remarks of the late William H. Vanderbilt anent the public. The novelty of publicly professing what so many publishers privately act might prove a great go. No charge for the suggestion.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE.

MONDAY 10 O'CLOCK A. M.

Opened by Supt. Chas. Newell with a few appropriate remarks, followed by Prof. Wetzell who interested the teachers and visitors until the noon hour.

Teachers present: H. A. Dillard, Mrs. Clara Marsden, Misses Lelah McGee, Bessie Harkey, Phebe Kelley, Leona Zeigler, Jessie McGowan, Annie Walls, Effie Hutchinson, Iva Haley, Mary George, Ada Smith, Elia Swain, Eva Swain, Lucinda and Ida Marshall Julia Loggan, and Belle Clendenen; Messrs. R. M. Brooks, Chas. Cochran, Dan Cochran, G. O. Hendricks, John May and Gerald Griffin.

EVENING EXERCISES.

Exercises at the dedication of our new school house:

Music by the Burns Brass Band; Invocation, Rev. Gibson; Address of Welcome, Mayor Durkheimer, which was very good indeed, and if we had the space would take pleasure in publishing in full. Oration by J. B. Huntington, which he managed to pull through all right, although in the start he told his audience his feelings had been thoroughly plowed and harrowed during the day. Song by six or eight of the small children of Burns. Music by the Burns choir, assisted by the congregation; the song America, was forced to the front and ground to powder, with the help of Prof. Dillard's gestures. Address, Prof. Newell; Recitation, Miss Annie Walls; Recitation, Miss Eva Swain; Recitation, Maurice Fitzgerald; Music, B. B. B.; Essay, Prof. G. Griffin; Recitation, Mrs. Handcock; Music, B. B. B.

The recitation by Miss Annie Walls was a puzzle to many, whether it was a part of her recitation to appear embarrassed or that she really was embarrassed and had forgotten a part of it is a conjecture in the minds of her hearers; but be that as it may, she conducted herself so becomingly and finished in such grand style as to elicit the applause and commendation of the whole audience. Miss Eva Swain's recitation was a decided success, also that of Maurice Fitzgerald, and was highly appreciated by the audience.

The recitation by Mrs. Handcock, of course, was expected to be superior to any of the evening, because she is high in the profession of elocution. It was indeed splendid, and her hearers were delighted.

TUESDAY EVENING EXERCISES.

Music, B. B. B.; address, Prof. Wetzell; address, Prof. Dillard; essay, Miss Phebe Kelley; recitations by Mrs. Clara Marsden, Misses Effie Hutchinson, Iva Haley, Leona Zeigler, Ada Smith; Prof. R. M. Brooks, Prof. John May.

Pupils of several districts who recited: Burns district, Bessie Harkey and Mary Hackman; Harney district, song by Harney students, recitations by Misses Ella Williams, Lucinda Marshall, Julia Loggan, Viola Foester, Laura Newell, Ida Clark, Ida Marshall, Messrs. James Morrison, Chas. Davis; district No. 4, Miss Kelley, teacher, recitations by Misses Myrtle Porter, Jessie De Witt, Margeret Porter; district No. 9, Miss Mabel Calkins; district No. 11, Misses Alma Bower, Frankie Jones; district No. —, Miss Elsie McKinnon.

The address of Prof. Wetzell was suited to the occasion and very good.

We do not think the teachers really desire any particular personal mention, that is, those who took part in recitations etc., but we will mention that part which impressed us as to selection and delivery: The essay by Miss Kelley was a good one and the recitation by Mrs. Marsden was a good selection and well rendered. The recitations by Misses Effie Hutchinson, Iva Haley, Leona Zeigler and Ada Smith were all very good and reflect credit upon the speakers.

Now comes the pupils who helped to entertain the big crowd: Burns, Bessie Harkey and Mary Hackman—both of these pupils deserve lots praise and credit. Harney next comes in and claims her full share of honor and glory, furnishing eight or ten pupils full of enthusiasm expressed in recitations and song. First was a song by the pupils of Harney school and recitations by those already mentioned. The exercises closed with a selection from the B. B. B.

RESOLUTIONS.

We, the committee on resolution beg leave to submit the following: WHEREAS, The Seventh Annual Institute of Harney Co., is about to close after a most instructive and successful session under the management of County Supt. Newell, and Prof. Wetzell as institute instructor, therefore be it RESOLVED, That we the teachers of Harney Co. extend our thanks to Prof. Newell for his untiring efforts in making the institute a success. RESOLVED, That we realize the value and appreciate the services of Prof. Witzell as our instructor. We regard his methods as clear, lucid, logical and eminently practical.

RESOLVED, That we extend our thanks to the Burns Brass Band for assisting us during our evening exercises.

RESOLVED, That our thanks be given to all the people of Burns and neighboring communities who have manifested such deep interest in our work.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be given to the Harney Co. papers for publication.

Dated Nov. 16, 1895.

HUNTINGTON, Or., Oct. 25, '95.

DEAR SIR:—At no time in the history of the O. C. Co. has a dollar been able to purchase as much as this fall; we have reduced percentage of margins to compare with the times, and persons about to make purchases can get more for their money here than elsewhere. All the wagon loads going into Malheur and Harney counties load with us. Why is it? Honest deals and prices low as the lowest. If you have not already bought your fall supplies, come and see us. We want your trade.

Yours for business,
O. C. Co.
