Local News.

Merry Christmas
Joe Sturdevant is in town
Father Bowen returned from Corvallis last Monday.

See the largest line of toy books, dolls and Xmas goods at Worthington's before buying elsewhere.

Theodore Durrant's death warrant has been signed, and, Friday February 21st, is the day fixed for his execution.

Cal Geer, as usual performed his part of the Xmas tree work, that is, procured the tree, and a very nice one too.

Santa Clause will make his Headquarters at Worthington's until after Xmas. Call and see him.

Finest line of Photo, Scrap and Auto. Albums ever brought to Eastern Oregon at Worthington's.

The time and place of holding the Democratic convention will be determined by the national committee which meets in Washington D. C. January 16.

Parties desiring to purchase Christmas goods, candies etc., are solicited to call on Miss Sallie Hudspeth. She received a stock of Christmas goods last Monday.

Cy Boneathy is again one of our citizens. Cy left here several years ago and has traveled in several states, and a part of the time in British Columbia.

Santa Clause has agreed to give every boy and girl a bag of candy and nuts, who will call on him Xmas at Worthington's.

The girls dormitory at the Drain Normal school, was entirely consumed by fire on the night of the 16th inst. The girls barely escaping with their lives leaving behind all clothing except their night apparel.

Jorgensen has the finest and best lot of goods that ever came to Burns; go and see for yourself. He is also taking Cabinet Photos. at $3 per dozen. Do not forget to go and see what he has on hand.

Miss Leonie Ziegler, who has just finished a successful term of school in the R. J. McKinnon district, and her first school, is now a pupil under the training of Prof. Dillard in the Burns school. Miss Ziegler is stopping with Mrs. Alice King.

The Receiver of the Roseburg Land Office, R. S. Sheridan will be in our town the 15th. of next month to be present at the hearing of a contest case, in which Register Jones is interested. Its a case of Thos J. Brosnan vs The Dalles Military Road Co. Mr. Sheridan is a brother in law of our neighbor H. C. Levans.

F. G. Blume gave us a pleasant call the latter part of last week.

Sunday morning the minimum registered 14 degrees below zero.

Geo. Smyth and wife, of Diamond are in Burns for the holidays.

Robert Williams and Thos. Shields were in town last Saturday.

There will be a leap year ball at Armory Hall Jan. 1. Don't forget it.

$25 was given by the P. L. S. Co. towards the Christmas tree festivities.

Chairs of all patterns and descriptions at the hardware store of Chas. Voegtly. 13-11

New goods at the Johnson store, now under control of Henry Canaday. Just as cheap as ever or cheaper. Call and examine goods and get prices, and if suited buy.

Because Mr. Bayard, in a speech in London, told a few wholesome truths, the present republican congress wants him impeached.

Several parties from Harney have visited our town in the last week, among whom were: Messrs. Darst, Bennett and wife, Forester, Wyatt and Vickers.

The Xmas tree fell last evening just as the committee began distributing presents. No damage to amount to anything, except the breaking of a mirror. Capt. A. W. Waters delivered the address of the evening. Everybody seemed happy and to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent.

Prof. Halstead, a phrenologist gave several lectures at the M. E. church, last week which were fairly well attended all seemed to take an interest in his instructions on phrenology, and were highly entertained and amused when his selections of subjects were taken from the audience, and examined as to their particular traits of character etc.

Remember John Sweitzer's cabinet shop is now on the west side of the street in the old saloon building south of A. C. Worthington's. We were in his shop a day or two since and examined some of his work which cannot be surpassed in the state for finish and durability. Call and be convinced of what we say. We do say it without fear of successful denial that his work cannot be beaten anywhere.

One of the London papers says, "there is nothing surprising in the fact that the Monroe doctrine talks rather largely in President Cleveland's message, nor in the hostile tone adopted toward England. Is not the presidential election drawing nigh? Pulling the lion's tail may look to the old world as a curious way of trying to catch fish, but it has been found to answer in the turbid waters of American politics."

H. A. Williams Ontario and Canyon stage contractor, was called back to his home, Monday because of sickness in his family. He came over with the intention of remaining here during holidays Mr. Williams is a genial urbane gentleman and we like to have him with us. We hope the illness of his family, that has called him home, is so slight that he may return in a day or two and bring a part or all of them and enjoy the remaining holidays with us.

J. A. Sparrow is in town.

Remember the leap year ball New Years night

Quite a number of the P. L. S. Co. boys are in town today.

Dr. Bill, a veterinary surgeon, well known in Burns for crookedness, is booked in Portland for a term in the penitentiary for stealing.

England is beginning to understand that Uncle Sam is in earnest. Since the war cloud has appeared each party has gone so far, that it will have to be a signal back down by either. Which will it be, not the United States by any means.

The death sentence of James Ellington has been affirmed by the supreme court of Idaho. It will be remembered James Ellington, on Dec. 20th, 1894, at Boise City, killed Charles Briggs. He was indicted on the charge of murder and sentenced to be hanged, but an appeal was taken to the supreme court, which resulted as before stated. The summer before the killing both were residents of Burns for some time. They went from here to Boise.

School Entertainment.

Dec. 22, '95.

ED. HERALD: The school in district No. 4, closes Friday, Dec 27. We will have an entertainment in the evening after which will be served a basket supper. All are cordially invited.

School closes with an average attendance of eighteen.

TEACHER.

Scratch an American these days and you will almost certainly find a jingoist. Foreign countries would do well to consider this state of affairs when dealing with the United States.

Speaker Reed isn't a success in the role of Santa Claus. He made more of the congressional boys mad than he pleased by his distribution of house presents.

Numberless lies were shattered when Mrs. Stowe recently declared that Uncle Tom was not a character taken from life. This was not news to residents of southern states.
