J. C. WELCOME.

—Carrel Cecil and W. H. Hogan were over last week.

—Several parties from Harney were present at the "Three P." dance.

BOEN.—To Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sweek, last Monday night, a daughter.

—John Jacquemin returned from San Francisco on the Ontario stage Sunday morning.

—J. B. Huntington is undoubtedly in the race for congress, and it is thought he will get the Harney, Grant, Crook and Malhuer delegation of his party in the state convention.

—Deputy Marshal FitzGerald returned from Vale last Sunday, where he went to investigate the mail robbery which occurred there recently. He failed to find any clew leading to the identification or capture of the robber.

—J. S. Kenyon, who has been a resident of Burns for the last year associated with John McKinnon in the blacksmith and wagon repairing business, having disposed of his half interest recently, will leave here today, in company with Lee Robbins, for his ranch near Drewsey.

—A noted courtesan who has been residing in Burns for many months, is languishing, since yesterday, in the county jail. She was arrested on charges of conduct unbecoming one of her standing, and being short of funds and a fine of $40 being imposed by jury and court and the wherewith not forthcoming to pay said fine, hence the prison and many cuss words.

—We are sorry, indeed, to learn of the recent affliction visited upon Mrs. Frank Dibble. Mrs. Dibble is young and just lately married; a few days past she noticed something wrong with her eyesight, and we are informed in 24 hours after the discovery she was almost entirely blind. Her husband, accompanied by her mother, brought her to town last Monday to get the advice and attention of Dr. Marsden. They are still in town, and we understand the doctor thinks he can relieve the affection.

—New goods at the Johnson store now under control of Henry Canaday. Just as cheap as ever or cheaper. Call and examine goods and get prices, and if suited buy.

—Jergensen has the finest and best lot of goods that ever came to Burns; go and see for yourself. He is also taking Cabinet Photos. at $3 per dozen. Do not forget to go and see what he has on hand.

—The Mary Dawphit ranch located at the sink of Prater creek is for sale. Price $500. This is a good ranch and worth a great deal more than the price asked for it. Call at this office or on John Martin for further information.

—It is stated in the Prineville Review that the killing of Wagner by Mills in Crook county grew out of a dispute over a line fence, instead of a quarrel about a colt, as we stated in our last issue.

—Frank Matney was brought to town from the logging camp the latter part of last week, sick. The next day he went out to the home of J. S. Bowen, we were told yesterday, that he is now about well.

—Fitzsimmons refuses to meet Corbett, in the ring, unless he will first whip Maher. He says Corbett is nothing but a bluffer and a coward. Great Scott! Corbett don't want but one square lick at Fitz to put him where he [Fitz] put Maher. Fitzsimmons refuses to accept the champion belt.

—We wonder if Dell Dibble will canvass the county in favor of Sam Miller for county clerk? Some think he may do so, from the remark he made to County Clerk Kenyon, on the side walk in front of H. M. Horton's drug store. W. H. Hogan and Carrel Cecil declare they take no stock in the rumor as being correct or as such being his intention.

—Indian war veterans and widows of deceased veterans who desire the passage of the bill granting them pensions, which is now before congress, can send their address, company and regiment, character of service, name of Company, and regimental officers to Waters & Gowen, who will forward same to Capt. T. A. Wood, Portland, Oregon, free of charge. This is of interest to all who served in any Indian war between the years of 1848 and 1859, and should be attended to at once.

—In this issue appears the announcements of four republican candidates for different county offices, subject to their respective convention. For sheriff, Grant Thompson and A. Gittings, for treasurer, J. C. Welcome, for assessor, Win Waters. These are all good representative men of their party. A. Gittings has held the office of sheriff two terms and of course is well known by all the voters of the county. Grant Thompson was before the people two years ago for the office of sheriff, but was defeated in the convention. Grant is well known and undoubtedly has many friends and a strong following. J. C. Welcome has never held a county office in this county, but still he is very well known as one of our staunch business men, trustworthy, generous and a leading man in his party. Win Waters for assessor is in every way qualified for the office, a young man of fine judgement, honest and has a host of friends.

MARRIED.—At the Hotel Burns last Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock, Charles Haines and Miss Annie Comegys were united in marriage. Justice Byrd performed the ceremony. The bride and groom left the next morning on Diamond stage for the Narrows where Mr. Haines is engaged in the mercantile business. The best wishes of THE HERALD and a host of friends follow the happy couple, wishing them a contented and prosperous voyage through life.

MR. ELLIS' STRENGTH.—While the report has gone abroad that Grant county republicans favor Anderson for congress, the report is not altogether true. There is not a man on the republican ticket that has more friends in this county than Mr. Ellis. To the surprise of the numerous other aspirants for his seat, Mr. Ellis will develop more strength in Eastern Oregon than they are looking for.—Eagle. The above from the Eagle is full of truth. Eastern Oregon has in Mr. Ellis a good, tried, faithful man, and won't trade him off for doubtful timber in June '96.—Baker City Blade.

DON.

From Van.

TAN, Feb. 19, 1896.

Mr. W. L. Jones has moved into his new house.

The new P. O. building is about completed.

We expected ere this to be able to send an account of the wedding of Mr. Harve Middlesworth to Miss Cramer. But alas! All we can say is, "There's many a slip twixt the cup and the lip."

Several of our neighbors attended the masquerade ball at Drewsey the 14th and voted it a success.

VANITY.

Lawen Items.

The ranchers are burning off the tules.

The stray horse which was in the care of Joseph Wooley proved to be the property of G. O. Hendricks

The school in district No 17 closed on the 21st inst.

There were two of the directors, most all of the patrons, and a large number of visitors present to hear the closing exercises. The pupils did well. Prof. Newell made a few very appropriate remarks.

The directors of the Lawen school have furnished their teacher with another fine chart.

The school is well supplied with everything excepting patent seats and more blackboard room.
