

Plenty of Candidates.

From the Oregonian. This is the way the Albany Herald sums up the situation in the first district:

"It is only necessary to look over the list of candidates for congress in the first district to see that it will not be a case of the office seeking the man this time. There are some mighty good men out for the nomination, and it is certain that it looks a little chilly for Mr. Hermann. The candidates for the office are Thomas H. Tongue, of Hillsboro; George C. Brownell, of Oregon City; Tilman Ford, of Salem; Warren Truitt, of Dallas; A. C. Woodcock, of Eugene; C. A. Sehlbrede, of Roseburg; H. B. Miller, of Grant's Pass; W. I. Vawter, of Medford; C. B. Watson, of Ashland; Binger Hermann, of Roseburg.

A MYSTERY ABOUT IT.

Eugene, Or., March 16—Quite a sensation has been created by what is thought to have been an attempt to poison the family of Mrs. Hiram Smith, a widow, who lives on a farm near Harrisburg, between Colburg and Harrisburg. Inquiries have been made at all of the drug stores regarding the sale of poisons by a gentleman who says attempts have been made to poison the family by secretly placing poison in food. It is claimed Mrs. Smith's life was attempted once before, but, as in this instance, the poison was detected before any damage was done. There is a mystery about the whole affair, and several theories are advanced, but none of them seems plausible.

Expelled From the Order.

Astoria, March 16—The principle talk among society members today is the action of the A. O. U. W. Saturday night in expelling F. D. Winton, a well known attorney, of this city, from the order. The action is the result of a long drawn-out trial, based on the charges against Winton because of his action in collecting a $550 fee from a Mrs. Feakes for collection of the policy from the A. O. U. W. on the life of her husband, who died last fall. The order pays without the intervention of attorneys. There was much excitement at the time the lodge made its final decision on a mass of evidence, and both sides claim unfair dealings. Winton, backed by friends, it is said, will appeal to the supreme lodge: This is an unusual proceeding in the order, and the outcome will be watched with much interest.

THE NAME OF THE NEXT

President of the United States

WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN

The New York Weekly Tribune

NOVEMBER 4th 1896

Public interest will steadily increase, and the question how the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election are satisfied with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the country.

The New York Weekly Tribune

the leading Republican family newspaper of The United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations.

Also general news in attractive form, foreign correspondents covering the news of the world, an agricultural department second to none in the country, market reports which are recognized authority, fascinating short stories, complete in each number, the cream of the humourous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures, fashion plates and elaborate descriptions of woman's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest. The "New York Weekly Tribune" is an ideal family paper, with a circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from the office of a daily. Large changes are being made in its details, tending to give it greater life and variety, and especially more interest to the women and young people of the household.
