It will be difficult to convince most people that the interest held in a surety company, which proposes to furnish the required bonds for New York liquor dealers, by a son of Boss Platt and a son of the author of the Raines excise law is merely a coincidence which will enable the sons of the men who were instrumental in saddling the Raines law upon the state to make big money out of that law.

Salvation Army number two has moved to Chicago, where is proposed to push a summer campaign.

Conductor Joe Manly has shouted "all aboard!" and started the Reed train, regardless of reports of washouts and shaky bridges.

If Chicago is proud of the action of the Hamilton Club in admitting a negro to membership Chicago pride is not a thing to envious of.

The medium who can get Ben Butler's opinion of the proposition to erect a monument in his honor will be certain of a lively seance.

The editors who wrote lengthy articles about the lesson in diplomacy which Turkey was about to teach us by recalling her minister are sorry they went off half cocked. Turkey has no idea of recalling her minister. Moral: It's better sometimes to be too slow than to be too fast.

Had the purse suggested by certain toadies for the Duke Veragua, when he was at the World's Fair with the Spanish Infanta, Eulalie, been raised the Duke would probably have been less bitter in his criticism of congress for its attitude towards Cuba.

Speaker Reed's economy would be more popular with the members of the house if this wasn't election year; and if they didn't know how insincere it is. Reed wants to make a showing for campaign use, and at the next session which will not be held until after election, extravagance will be allowed to run riot.

Andrew Carnegie's latest scheme to add to his already immense wealth is a steel trust, to control the out put steel, and, of course, the price.

NEW YORK WORLD.

The Twice-a-week Edition of the New York World has been converted into the Thrice-a-week. It furnishes 3 papers of 6 pages apiece, or eighteen pages every week, at the old price of One Dollar a year. This gives 156 paper a year for One Dollar and every paper has 6 pages eight columns wide or 48 columns in all. The Thrice-a-week World is not only much larger than any weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact it combines all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily with the attractive special features of a weekly.

Arrangements have been made by which we can furnish this paper and the Thrice-a-Week New York World both for $2.25 a year. Take advantage of this offer and get your own local paper and the Thrice-a-Week World at this special rate.
