

FEMINE RULE.

A Walla Walla man went to sleep the other night and dreamed he was in a city entirely governed by women. It was scrupulously clean, and while wandering around, he saw three men arrested for spitting on the pavements. A garbage box at the rear end of each lot was hand-painted and tied with a blue ribbon. Mail boxes were decorated with drawn-work throws, and fire-plugs had cushioned seats on top of them. Sweet peas were climbing over the electric light poles and a hand-painted cupid occupied a prominent place on every corner. There was no business, not a team being allowed to pass up and down the main streets for fear of making a dust. The town was deserted save for the policeman who marched up and down to see that no one with dusty shoes stepped into the town.—Blade

EASTER SUNDAY.

San Francisco, March 30—A special from Tacoma, Wash., says: It was Easter Sunday yesterday on the Pacific slope, although probably not more than half a dozen people knew it. Those who did know it are ambitious astronomers and mathematicians. They find that the first full moon after the spring equinox put in an appearance on this coast shortly after 10 o'clock Saturday night, and it is a fact that the first Sunday after the first full moon after the spring equinox is Easter Sunday the world over. This is the first instance of the kind since the beginning of the Christian era, and this part of the Pacific slope had its Easter Sunday a week in advance of the rest of the world.

America's Great Danger

AN ENGLISH COMMENTARY.

Said an eminent English scientist recently: "The danger that confronts the great American people today is not the possible adoption of a wrong financial policy for the nation, or the spread of socialism, or the increase of corruption among public men. All these are bad enough, to be sure, but they are as nothing compared to the terrible national disease—I had almost said national crime—of overwork. The mad rush for wealth is at a killing pace and thousands fall by the way every year."

You are likely to be one of the victims! How do we know? Because it is the exception to find a man or woman of adult age in perfect health. Nervous Disorders are spreading with fearful rapidity. Among the symptoms are—Backache, Biliousness, Cold hands and feet, Dizziness, Hot Flashes, Flattering Sensation, Fainting, Headache, Hysteria, Irritability of the Heart, Melancholy, Failing Memory, Palpitation, Erection, Night Sweats, Sleeplessness, Nervous Dyspepsia, Sexual Debility, Fits, etc.
