He Wouldn't Pay Her Fare.

A gentleman, accompanied by his wife and children, boarded a Fourth-avenue car at Twenty-third street the other morning. The wife and children found seats inside the car, while the husband sought the front platform for a smoke.

When the conductor called for the fares the man gave him two dimes, at the same time explaining, with a jerk of his thumb over his shoulder, that he was paying for the other three members of his family seated inside the car.

The conductor rang up the four fares and then extended his hand with the remark:

"You owe me another nickel."

"What for?" laconically inquired the man, blowing a whiff of smoke around the corner of the car.

"You'll have to pay for that other child in there. She's 5 years old isn't she?"

"Yes, I guess she nearer 8."

"Then why don't you pay her fare and not keep me standing here all day?" exclaimed the conductor with considerable emphasis.

"Because I don't want to, that's why," replied the man on the platform, with a grin.

"Then I'll have to call a policeman," said the conductor, spitefully ringing the bell to let off a passenger.

"All right, call a policeman—call 10 of them if you want to, there's plenty of them."

While this dialogue between the two was going on the passengers shot many indignant glances toward the front of the car at the man who was so mean that he would not pay his own child's fare. The wife's face turned as red as a poppy, as she heard an old lady in black exclaim:

"That man's too stingy to live."

When the car reached Eighth street it came to a stop, and a policeman, who had been signaled by the conductor, came on board.

"Why don't you pay the child's fare?" said the policeman, marching up to the cool but apparently mean man.

"Because she isn't my child," calmly answered the man.

The policeman looked at the conductor and the conductor looked at the man, and the passengers looked at each other. The delightful silence which followed was interrupted by the little girl herself, who called out to the conductor:

"Why don't you take my car fare? I want to get out at Bond street"—New York Herald.

IN A DILEMMA.

St. Louis, Jun 8—What shall be done with the colored delegates to the national Republican convention? This is a question which is puzzling the members of the national committee who have arrived and the business men's league which secured the convention, as well. Every hotel and boarding house and cafe came out flatfooted today and declared it would not entertain negroes as guests or customers. Money is no object. Threats of prosecution have had no effect, and from the present outlook it would seem that, unless tents are secured, the black men will have to go hungry and unhooused.

When asked what the national committee would do, Mr. Tongue, national committeeman of Florida, replied: "I have consulted members who are here and I have decided to offer a resolution as soon as the committee meets, condemning the hotel and inn keepers and for the laying aside of a fund for renting a hall in which cots shall be placed for the negroes who may come to the convention. We will also request the employment of a corps of cooks to supply them food."

ominis r Catarrh that contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and is made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

Durring the winter of 1893, F. M. Martin, Long Reach, West Va., contracted a severe cold which left him with a cough. In speaking of how he cured it he says: "I used several kinds of cough syrup but found no relief until I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which relieved me almost instantly and in a short time brought about a complete cure." When troubled with a cough or cold use this remedy and you will not find it necessary to try several kinds before you get relief. It has been in the market for over twenty years and constantly grown in favor and popularity. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by druggists.

This is to certify that on May 11 I walked to Melick's drug store on a pair of crutches and bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for inflammatory rheumatism which had crippled me up. Those who are troubled with rheumatism should try a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, rubbing the parts vigorously at each application. If that does not bring relief dampen a piece of flannel with Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain and prompt relief will surely follow. For sale by druggists.

America's Great Danger

AN ENGLISH COMMENTARY.

Said an eminent English scientist recently: "The danger that confronts the great American people to-day is not the possible adoption of a wrong financial policy for the nation, or the spread of socialism, or the increase of corruption among public men. All these are bad enough, to be sure, but they are as nothing compared to the terrible national disease—I had almost said national crime—of overwork. The mad rush for wealth is set at a killing pace, and thousands fall by the way every year."

You are likely to be one of the victims! How do we know? Because it is the exception to find a man or woman of adult age in perfect health. Nervous Disorders are spreading with fearful rapidity. Among the symptoms, are—Backache, Headaches, Cold Hands and Feet, Dizziness, Hot Flashes, Fluttering Sensation, Fainting, Headache, Hysteria, Irritability of the Heart, Melancholy, Failing Memory, Palpitation, Rheumatism, Short Breath, Sleeplessness, Nervous Dyspepsia, Sexual Debility, Fits, etc. Rev. C. A. CARROLL, pastor First Baptist Church, Yellow Springs, O., writes as follows: "I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve for the past six months. I find it acts like a charm on the whole nervous system. I have not found its equal in giving immediate relief. Dr. Miles' little Nerve and Liver Pills only need a trial and they will recommend themselves to be the best pills in the market."

"For five years I have suffered from Nervous Prostration, I was unable to work or sleep. The first dose of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve gave me relief, and one thousand dollars would not cover the good it has done me."—JOHN MINCHER, Youngstown, Ohio.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is unequalled in curing Nervous Diseases. It contains no opiates or dangerous drugs. Sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
