ILLUSTRATED.

The Simpleton, a new novel by THOMAS HARDY, will be begun in the December Number, 1898, and continued to November, 1899. Who ever may be one's favorite among English Novelists, it will be conceded by all critics that THOMAS HARDY stands foremost of a master artist in fiction, and The Simpletons may be expected to arouse enthusiasts not inferior in degree to that which has marked Trevelyan—the most successful story of the year. Another leading feature will be the Personal Recollections of Joan of Arc, by the Sieur Louis de CONTE, Her Poet and Secretary, under which guise the most popular of living American magazine writers will present the story of the Maid of Orleans. In the January Number will appear a drolly illustrated paper on Charleston and the Carolinas, the first of a series of Southern Papers.

Southern Africa is attracting more attention at any other time since it was the seat of empires. The next volumes of HARPER'S MAGAZINE will four illustrated articles on this region, and three of them will depict the present life there. JULIAN RALPH will prepare for the MAGAZINE a series of eight stories, depicting typical phases of Chinese Life and Manners. Besides the long stories, there will begin in the January Number the first Chapter of A Three Part Novelle, by RICHARD HARRINGTON DAVIS—the longest work yet attempted by this writer. Complete short stories by popular writers will continue to be a feature of the MAGAZINE.
