A MOVING MOUNTAIN.

A mountain is moving down in the old Provence district of France. In what long ago used to be known as the "Land of the Troubadours," this modern miracle has come to pass, and before the eyes of the astounded peasantry, who are hurrying to and fro to their wayside shrines and ancient churches, a great mass of earth is moving at a rate that is plainly perceptible to eye, and with a noise that groans and roars up and down the valley of the Gard.

It is likely to do even more. There is more than a possibility that this gigantic movement of heaped up boulders and loosely joined-together soil will result in changing the course of the famous river Rhone. Already the colliery of Grande Combe, in the little valley of the same name, and the best part of a mile of the Allias railway have been destroyed, and the dwellers in that region have had to flee before the mountain's slow and irresistible advance.

The entire movement is strange and peculiar. One of the earth's surface which took place in past ages, but such an event has not been known to happen hitherto in these times of ours. The primal cause of this mountain's moving is said to be the weakening of its base of grit and green marl by the continual infiltration of rain.

The lower portions of the enormous mass of soil and boulders have given way, and the whole vast bulk, which until now had lifted its head high above the valley is gradually slipping down toward the far-off sea, threatening to choke up both the Gard and the Gardon rivers, which mingle and flow down to the Rhone through the valley along which the mountain is making its way.

Many people are traveling out from nearby Nimes each day to obtain a view of this phenomenon. As many as 5000 sightseers have already visited the district, and great care has to be taken that none of them venture on the mountain itself, or in the path of the moving mass.

As it moves, and the advance is almost perceptible, as one stands by and watches closely, the noise is deafening, and time and time again, with a sound like a muffled explosion, the surface of the mountain side breaks in big cracks and crevasses, some of which are wide enough for a railway train to pass through.

It is noticed that McKinley is not enthusing over the gold standard idea.

The St. Louis convention did not dare to declare in favor of a restoration of the McKinley tariff law.

o cants r Catarrh that contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and is made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

During the winter of 1893, F. M. Martin, Long Reach, West Va., contracted a severe cold which left him with a cough. In seeking of several kinds of cough syrup but found no relief until I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which relieved me almost instantly, and in a short time brought about a complete cure." When troubled with a cough or cold use this remedy and you will not find it necessary to try several kinds before you get relief. It has been in the market for over twenty years and constantly grown in favor and popularity. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by druggists.

An Affidavit.

This is to certify that on May 11 I walked to Melick's drug store on a pair of crutches and bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for inflammatory rheumatism which had crippled me up. After using three bottles I am completely cured. I can cheerfully recommend it—Charles H. Wetzel, Sunbury, Pa.

Sworn and subscribed to before me on August 10, 1894.—Walter Shipman, J. P. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by druggists.

Those who are troubled with rheumatism should try a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, rubbing the parts vigorously at each application. If that does not bring relief dampen a piece of flannel with Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain and prompt relief will surely follow. For sale by druggists.

For your Protection.—Catarrh "Cures" or Tonics for Catarrh in liquid form to be taken internally, usually contain either Mercury or Iodine of Potassa, or both, which are injurious if too long taken. Catarrh is a local, not a blood disease, caused by sudden change to cold or damp weather. It starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat. Cold in the head causes excessive flow of mucus, and, if repeatedly neglected, the results of catarrh will follow; severe pain in the head, a roaring sound in the ears, bad breath, and oftentimes an offensive discharge. The remedy should be quick to allay inflammation and heal the membrane. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles and contains no mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents.

America's Great Danger

AN ENGLISH COMMENTARY.
Said an eminent English scientist recently: "The danger that confronts the great American people to-day is not the possible adoption of a wrong financial policy for the nation, or the spread of socialism, or the increase of corruption among public men. All these are bad enough, to be sure, but they are as nothing compared to the terrible national disease—I had almost said national crime—of overwork. The mad rush for wealth is set at a killing pace, and thousands fall by the way every year."

You are likely to be one of the victims! How do we know? Because it is the exception to find a man or woman of adult age in perfect health. Nervous Disorders are spreading with fearful rapidity. Among the symptoms, are—Backache, Biliousness, Cold Flands and Feet, Dizziness, Hot Flashes, Fluttering Sensation, Fainting, Headache, Hysteria, Irritability of the Heart, Melancholy, Failing Memory, Palpitation, Rheumatism, Short Breath, Sleeplessness, Nervous Dyspepsia, Sexual Debility, Fits, etc.
Rev. C. A. CARROLL, pastor First Baptist Church, Yellow Springs, O., writes as follows: "I find it acts like relief. Dr. Miles' little Nerve Tonic. I Pills only need a trial and they will recommend themselves to be the best pills in the market."

"For five years I have suffered from Nervous Prostration, I was unable to work or sleep. The first dose of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine gave me relief, and one thousand dollars would not cover the good it has done me."—JOHN MINCHER, Youngstown, Ohio.
Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is unequalled in curing Nervous Diseases. It contains no opiates or dangerous drugs. Sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
