DEATH OF DR. MCPHEETERS.

Dr. Samuel Bowman McPheeters died suddenly at his home in Burns last Saturday evening about 10 o'clock of heart failure. He had just retired for the night, when shortly after his granddaughter Miss Alice Smith the only other occupant of the house at the time, hearing his heavy breathing from an adjoining room went in to see the cause, but death had come to claim its own, and an old and respected citizen passed into the silent beyond. His son Charles had gone out for the evening to attend band practice and did not learn of the sudden death of his father until nearly a half hour after on his return home. News of the sudden passing away of one of Burns highly respected citizens spread rapidly and came as a shock to the community as the deceased had been in unusual good spirits of late. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from the Baptist church of which the deceased was a member. The remains were escorted to the cemetery by the Masonic lodge of this place and was buried according to their rites.

The deceased was born in North-cru Missouri, May 15, 1828. In 1860 he was married to Miss Fannie A. Carpenter at Davenport, Ia. She died in 1881. In 1885 he moved to Grand Ronde valley, coming to Harney valley in 1886, where with the exception of a short time he has since resided.

The children to survive him are Mrs. Fannie A. Smith, of Humansville, Mo., Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Prineville, Or., and Mrs. Lloyd Culp and Charles E. McPheeters, of Burns. A brother, Cal McPheeters lives on Poison creek.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas: It has pleased the Supreme Grand Architect of the Universe to call from labor to refreshment and final rest, our esteemed and beloved brother, S. B. McPheeters, who departed this life in the jurisdiction of Burns Lodge, No. 97, A. F. & A. M., June 22nd, 1901, at the ripe age of 73 years, again teaching us the sublime truth that all on earth is change, yet death is not the end of man or the expiring hope of Masons;

Whereas: We pause not at our first or second steps, but look forward to Greater Light, and

Whereas: We bow to the order of Deity, we believe our brother has only gone forward and points beyond the silent tomb to the breaking of a blessed immortality. Aye the will of God is accomplished, so mote it be.

Therefore, be it resolved that in his death the bereaved relatives have lost an indulgent father, his associates an affectionate and sympathetic friend, and society a valued member whose life was simplified by Christian charity and endowed with sterling integrity and manly virtue; that the Nation and the State has lost a patriotic, upright and active citizen, and the Church a pillar of righteousness.

Resolved, That a copy hereof be delivered to the members of the family of our deceased brother, and a copy filed in the archives of this lodge.
