LATE PRESIDENT'S WILL

Bulk of the Estate Left to Mrs. McKinley.

Canton, O., Sept. 27.—Secretary Cortelyou came here today to assist Mrs. McKinley in disposing of matters connected with the late President's estate.

All legal formalities necessary for her to subscribe to were disposed of. This afternoon Judge Day and Secretary Cortelyou went to the office of the Probate Judge and offered the will of President McKinley for probate.

"I, Ida McKinley, widow of William McKinley, deceased, hereby decline the administration of his estate and recommend the appointment of William R. Day and George B. Cortelyou as administrators, with this will annexed."

"Executive Mansion, Washington D. C.—I publish the following as my latest will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills: "To my beloved wife, Ida S. McKinley, I bequeath all of my real estate, wherever situated, and the income of any personal property of which I shall be possessed at death, during her natural life.

"Witness my hand and seal this 22nd day of October, 1897, to my last will and testament, made at the City of Washington, D. C. WILLIAM MCKINLEY."

"The foregoing will was witnessed by us this 22nd day of October, 1897, at the request of the testator, and his name signed hereto in our presence, and our signatures hereto in his presence. "G. B. CORTELYOU. "CHARLES LOEFLER."

It is given out on authority that the McKinley estate will total $225,000 to $250,000, including life insurance of $67,000.

CZOLGOSZ GIVEN DEATH SENTENCE

Must Pay the Penalty of his Crime in Shooting the President.

Buffalo, Sept. 26.—Leon F. Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, was this afternoon sentenced to be electrocuted in Auburn state prison during the week beginning October 28, 1901.

The death warrant, signed by Justice White, is addressed to the agent and warden of Auburn state prison and directs him to execute the sentence of the court within the walls of the prison on some day during the week beginning October 28 next, by causing "to pass through the body of said Leon F. Czolgosz a current of electricity of sufficient intensity as to cause death and that the application of the said current of electricity be continued until he, the said Leon F. Czolgosz, be dead."

Auburn, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Leon F. Czolgosz, assassin of President McKinley, in the custody of Sheriff Caldwell, of Erie County, a d 21 deputies, arrived in Auburn at 3:15 A. M. The prison is only about 50 yards from the depot.

As soon as the handcuffs were unlocked the man was dragged into the principal keeper's office. As in the case of all prisoners the officers immediately proceeded to strip him and put on a new suit of clothes.

The prison physician, Dr. John Guerin, examined the man and ordered his removal to the cell in the condemned row, which he will occupy until he is taken to the electric chair.

RACE OF ALL RACES

Columbia Beat Shamrock in the First of the Series.

New York, Sept. 28.—In the closest and most soul-stirring race ever sailed for the America's cup, the white flyer Columbia today beat the British challenger over a windward and leeward course of 20 nautical miles by the narrow, heart-breaking margin of 39 seconds.

As a spectacle the contest was superb. From the time the two sky-scraping racers crossed the starting line until they fled across the finishing line, four and a half hours later, the result was in doubt and the excitement about the excursion fleet increased until men became frenzied and women almost hysterical.

For miles, as they beat their way to the outer mark, the black shadow Shamrock's huge topsail was painted on the big mainsail of Columbia and for an hour on the run home, with the yachts flying like scared deer before the wind, they ran almost beam to beam, as if they had been harnessed together.

SLEEPING EMPIRE.

Harney County's Future If Given Water.

An undeveloped empire, isolated and practically unknown, is the description of A. W. Gowan of his home county, Harney. An output of stock products aggregating $1,000,000 this year, growing and promising agriculture, a touch of mineral here and there, and other resources not yet brought to the front, are the inducements Harney county offers to the settler.

"All we need is water," said Mr. Gowan. "When we get water we have a land of untold wealth. Naturally attention is turning to irrigation enterprises. Recently Judge Leonel R. Webster, Drake C. O'Reilly and others incorporated a great company having for its immediate object construction of an immense irrigation canal around our fine valley.

"If you will study the map of Harney county, you will find an immense level tract adjacent to the lake, Burns being at one end of it. This is overflowed in the spring. When the famous Arkansas swamp land act was extended to this State, the word 'overflow' was also inserted, which resulted in giving to the stockmen thousands upon thousands of acres of land overflowed in the spring but eminently fertile in the production of hay.

"Settlers are breaking into these holdings in some places, and Harney county has grown accordingly. But there are many acres of good land tied up, in large stock farms, and there are thousands of acres only awaiting irrigation. If this big enterprise is successful, it will have the effect of impounding the water that overflows the valley and conducting it to parts where it is needed."

Mr. Gowan has just returned from a visit to Willowa county, his old home. He finds that the beautiful valleys of that county have experienced wonderful growth in the past ten years. He departed this morning for Burns, driving a team and accompanied by his wife.—Baker City Republican.

PRESIDENT IS A PRISONER

The Long List of Things Which Custom Denies Our Chosen Ruler.

One would naturally think that the chief executive of so great a nation as ours would not only be exempt from some obligations which fall upon the average citizen, but would enjoy certain privileges peculiar to the highest office within the gift of the people. This is not the case, however. The fact that the President of the United States is the only law abiding and reason-possessing citizen thereof whom custom holds a prisoner within limited bounds is brought out very forcibly by John Elfrith Watkins, Jr., in an interesting article on "Some Things the President Does Not Do" in the October Ladies' Home Journal. It shows that in the spending of his leisure time the President is more restricted than the janitor who daily empties his waste-basket. For he must not leave the country, even for a day. This is an old, unwritten law. Neither can he go aboard a foreign warship, even when anchored in our harbors and when flying the colors of a friendly State, or make a formal call upon any one except a President-elect, an ex-President, a President of a foreign State or a reigning monarch visiting our capital. He must not receive any but intimate friends on Sunday, or occupy other than the seat of honor at any formal dinner. He must never occupy the left side of a carriage seat, or cross the threshold of a foreign embassy's residence in Washington, for that is foreign ground. These are only a few of the many laws with which custom restricts our President.

"Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach," says O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind. "His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water and he got better at once." Sold by H. M.
