SECOND ANNUAL COUNTY FAIR.

A Good Attendance-Display Better Than Expected. The Races.

The Second Annual Harney County Fair has been in session during the past week. The opening day did not note a very large attendance, but the remaining days a large crowd was present. The agricultural and horticultural exhibits were light, it was expected, owing to the severe weather in the Spring, but the live stock show was very creditable.

In Floral Hall, besides the agricultural display, were exhibits from Richardson & James' sawmill, Geer & Cummin's hardware store, Burns Furniture Co., a handsome display, J. H. McMullen and Mrs. J. H. Weider, photographic. In one corner the ladies of the Catholie church had erected a booth, as also had Mrs. C. W. McClain in another part showing a beautiful display of flowers and fancy work. A piece of other exhibits of fancy work not mentioned above made up the remaining part of the show in the
