

Getting Thin

is all right, if you are too fat; and all wrong, if too thin already.

Fat, enough for your habit, is healthy; a little more, or less, is no great harm. Too fat, consult a doctor; too thin, persistently thin, no matter what cause, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

There are many causes of getting too thin; they all come under these two heads: over-work and under-digestion.

Step over-work, if you can but, whether you can or not, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, to balance yourself with your work. You can't live on it—true—but, by it, you can. There's a limit, however; you'll pay for it.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the readiest cure for "can't eat," unless it comes of your doing no work—you can't long be well and strong, without some sort of activity.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for free sample. Its agreeable taste will surprise you.

A Prominent Chicago Woman Speaks
Prof. Roxa Tyler, of Chicago Vice President Illinois Woman's Alliance in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale H. M. Horton, Burns; Fred Haines, Harney City.

Child Worth Millions.
"My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird of Harrisburg, Pa.; "yet I would have lost her by group had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for coughs, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe cough cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The little ones like the taste and remember how often it helped them. Every family should have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure handy. At this season especially it may be needed suddenly. City Drug Store, H. M. Horton, prop; Fred Haines, Harney.

Beat Out of an Increase of His Pension
A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in '47 and '48, I contracted Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy you kept me from getting an increase in my pension for on every renewal a dose of it restores me." It is unequalled as a quick cure for diarrhoea and is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by H. M. Horton, Burns; Fred Haines, Harney.

OREGON GAMBLERS MOURN BIG LOSS.

horns of The Dalles thinking they had run up against two good things. Nothing loath, Shy and the Kid went. They played everything in sight and lost with a frequency that was startling. Although they both played like experienced hands, they could not seem to pick up a bet. If they played the high card to win the high card changed its mind. When they tried to call the turn the turn refused to respond.

Both were cheerful, even in adversity, and kept saying to each other: "Never mind, there is more where that came from," and such like expressions, and continued to play on.

But finally their cash vanished. They went down to their last copper. They had to quit. Both announced their intention of going away and returning to get even. They did so, as will be seen.

Both vanished on a passing freight that evening, and the local sports were laughing in their sleeves at the "easy money" they had won from the "Mormons." This hilarity continued for just twenty-four hours, when lo, the pair reappeared loaded with Columbia river brine and bundles of cash.

In a burst of confidence the two told one of the chief gamblers they were out for a place to locate a gambling joint themselves; that they had all kinds of money and securities and could get plenty more if that was not enough. They flashed several hundred in paper securities which looked good to the local crowd, while the Kid produced a mess of diamonds valued at some hundreds.

This display of wealth more than satisfied the owners of a place, and the Kid was placed in as dealer and partner, while Shy was given a place as cook in the first class house, where he soon distinguished himself for the variety of ways he could serve a broiled steak and for the piquancy of his steamboat hash.

Two days after the sale of the house, or the interest therein, the pair was seized with gambling fever. Both wanted to play. The Kid sold out his interest at a ruinously low figure. He sacrificed his diamonds and the collateral for cash and then he and the cook began bucking the wheel. They

Have you ever seen a Columbia Phonograph? And more. Have you ever heard one? If you have not just drop into Jorgensen. If you have been in a quandary about how to spend the long winter evenings, here is the solution. Cheap and just the thing.

Don't Live Together. Constipation and health never go together. DeWitt's Little Early Risers promote easy action of the bowels without distress. "I have been troubled with constipation nine years says J. O. Greene, Depauw, Ind. "I have tried many remedies but Little Early Risers give best results." City Drug Store, H. M. bucked in plenty, too, for in less than an hour the bankroll was gone.

Old gamblers looked on in astonishment at the play. They stacked up whole piles on single numbers and single numbers won. The bank took the roll from the faro table and lost that. Then the head of the house went down stairs and got the saloon man to stake him to $800 and the Kid and the Cook soon had that. Then they decided to go to Seattle and have a good time.

They bought tickets for Seattle and left the sad-faced sports to mourn the loss of their cash. But they did not go there by any means. They sold the tickets to a scalper and took a train eastward.

After they were gone, the broken sports were commenting on the manner in which the pair had played. Such runs of luck were never known on a roulette table before. While discussing the question, one of the owners of the late prosperous bank discovered something which caused him to make an examination of the wheel. He found that the figures had been changed so there were four 17's, five 33's and various other duplications on the circle.

The Kid was a painter and a good one. It was he that did the work. Further, every other one of the numbers had been fixed with a piece of rubber, so that it was well-nigh impossible for the number to remain in a number cell without it being one of their lucky ones.

A local jeweler next morning passed on the diamonds. He declared they were fine looking affairs but were paste. The alleged gold settings were discovered to be plate. The securities have since been pronounced worthless.

The Dalles sports are now looking around for jobs sawing wood. They give Shy and Kid credit for doing them, but declare that if they ever visit that place again there will be an affair to send out to the Associated Press which will make the recent burning of the negro in Colorado appear as mild a transaction as a Sunday school picnic.

Up to date Shy and the Kid have not shown up here and it is thought they have gone to some other spot where the gamblers are easy and the money is to be had for almost nothing.

Children Especially Liable.
Burns, bruises and cuts are extremely painful and if neglected often result in blood poisoning. Children are especially liable to such mishaps because not so careful. As a remedy DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Draws out the fire, stops the pain, soon heals the wound. Beware of counterfeits. Sure cure for piles. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my baby of eczema after two physicians gave her up," writes James Mock, N. Webster, Ind. "The sores were so bad she spoiled two to five dresses a day." City Drug Store, H. M. Horton, prop; Fred Haines, Harney.
