

SCHLEY VS. LEMLEY

Malice Towards Santiago's Hero Not to be Tolerated—Schley Won the Battle and Destroyed Spanish Fleet

One of the most outrageous attacks that has as yet appeared comes now from Judge-Advocate-General Lemley. To read the dispatches as they come from Washington, and which are given publicity in the daily press, shows a very deplorable condition on the part of clerics, at the head of one of which Advocate-General Lemley seems to be.

Laying aside all personal animosities and reading Lemley's attack on Admiral Schley's appeal, no reasonable mind can overcome the impression that malice is the gist of the action.

Speaking of the Texas, the commentators declare: "The question is not so much one of possible credit to, but of possible censure of Admiral Schley in connection with the work of that vessel in the battle of Santiago. The plain truth is that Admiral Schley did not during that battle in any way direct or control the splendid performances of the Gloucester and the three battleships Indiana, Iowa and Texas. The officers in command of these ships neither received nor obeyed a solitary order from him."

Next the commentators turn their attention to what they declare were persistent efforts by Schley's attorneys to show that in some manner the Oregon at least was under his orders during the battle, first by answering the signal, "Close up," and afterward by firing its thirteen-inch guns under signal from the Brooklyn, and they say: "But that attempt, as the testimony to be quoted below shows, was a failure."

They quote, therefore, passages from Captain Clark's testimony, in which he said in regard to the order, "Close up," that that was a standing order in the squadron to attack the enemy at once if they appeared, and to keep the heads of the ships always toward the entrance, and "I remember a feeling of satisfaction that there was an order to close in, in case any accident had happened—and colliding with other ships."

Mr. W. B. Conkey, the Chicago publisher of "Schley and Santiago," was interviewed, and here is what he says:

"The fact remains that Admiral Schley was in command at Santiago, controlled and directed every move of the squadron, that won the battle and destroyed the Spanish fleet."

"It strikes me that no amount of quibbling or political wire pulling can take that glory from Admiral Schley. At least that seems to be the opinion of the American public and a great many of the

The business and faintness from which women suffer may be due to one of several causes. But the most common cause is disease of the delicate womanly organism. The story of Mrs. Brown, told in her letter below, gives a fair example of the conditions under which so many women work: "I had a sick headache nearly all the time, was so nervous around my waist could hardly bear anything to touch me. I would work a little while and then lie down a while."

Failing to obtain more than temporary relief from her doctor's treatment, Mrs. Brown began the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, with the usual result—a complete cure.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for the cure of diseases peculiar to women. It establishes regularity, dries offensive drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"A few years ago I suffered severely with female weakness and had at times dreadful pains," writes Mrs. Mary N. Brown of Creswell, Harford Co., Maryland. "I went to my doctor, and he gave me medicine which did me good for a while, but I would get worse again. I had a sick headache nearly all the time; was so nervous around my waist could hardly bear anything to touch me. My feet would keep cold and would hardly do my work. I would work a while and then lie down a while, was completely run down. Suffered from disagreeable discharge and also severe pains at times. After using five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, three of his Golden Medical Discovery, and one of his Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and following the advice you gave regarding the 'Action Tablets,' I can truly say that I am cured. The doctor said it was uterine disease I had."

leading men of that great public. The Milwaukee Sentinel, one of the leading papers of the West, in reviewing the book, gives it a two-column notice, and in closing says to this effect:

"No patriotic American citizen can afford not to read George Graham's great book—Schley and Santiago. It gives the facts and proves that Sampson was at Siboney and Schley at Santiago, where the battle was fought and won."

The book contains nearly 500 pages of authentic facts and fifty instantaneous photographs taken by Graham during the battle.

Read this, a quotation from the book, and then say, if the fleet did not work with Schley, and appreciate him as the Commander-in-Chief. After the battle, Schley compliments the Oregon, Texas, in fact all the fleet which took part in the battle:

"Somebody raised a broom at our (the Brooklyn) masthead on one of the pennant halyards, and the crew of the Oregon followed suit, and then gave three cheers for Commodore Schley. On the Texas the men all lined up on the forward deck and at request from somebody aboard—I presume Captain Philip himself—gave three cheers for Commodore Schley. The little Vixen circled around us three or four times, her crew yelling themselves hoarse for the Brooklyn, for Schley, and for the victory."

"But from the New York there came never a sound of joyfulness and never a cheer."

The New York was Sampson's flagship, and had just returned from Siboney after the battle, and Advocate-General Lemley is Sampson's friend.—Special from Commercial Ass'td Press.
