

Proper Compounding

Of prescriptions is no child's play. It requires conscientious care and accurate knowledge of drugs and their relations to each other. We take an honest pride in the purity of our drugs, and the skill and accuracy with which we compound them on your physician's order.

Burns Drug Store
H. W. WELCOME & CO.,
Proprietors.

HARNEY VALLEY ITEMS.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1902.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Circuit court convened here Monday with Judge M. D. Clifford on the bench. The other members of the court in attendance were:

District Attorney Wm. Miller.
Sheriff Thos. Allen.
Clerk F. S. Rieder.
Bailliff Dyke Jameson.
The following were drawn as grand jurors:
L. N. Stallard, Drewsey,
W. A. Robertson, "
Jacob Wright, "
John Budelman, Burns
W. E. Trisch, "
D. M. McMenamy, "
Wm. Spencer, Riley,
Thos. Howard, bailiff
The cases disposed of up to time of going to press are:

CRIMINAL DOCKET.

State vs. Etta Horton, adultery; jury returns a verdict of guilty as charged. Sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

State vs. Randall, larceny of a horse; plead guilty, and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

State vs. Daly, murder; not a true bill.

State vs. Catterson, larceny of a colt; not a true bill.

Geo. Haggy and family have moved into their town residence for the winter.

Atty John W. Biggs returned from a business trip to Canyon City Monday.

Johnnie McNulty is ill with typhoid fever at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Kribs.

Patsy Daly, of Prairie City, arrived in Burns last Saturday to assist in looking after the interests of his brother Jerry Daly.

E. P. McCormack, the Salem attorney and banker, is in Burns this week on business matters in connection with the Devine estate.

Isaac Foster and W. L. Best, prominent stockmen of the Silver Creek section, were doing business in the city since our last issue.

District Attorney Wm. Miller and family arrived from Ontario Sunday and will be guests of Register and Mrs. Wm. Farro during court.

Hon. Will R. King, lawyer, and editor of the Ontario Democrat, is in Burns this week looking after his clients interests in several cases which he has before the circuit court.

NOT A RELIEF BUT A CURE

OLENTMENTS

and suppositories will not, positively cannot—do more than relieve you.

It requires an internal remedy to remove the cause and effect a permanent cure. Ask your druggist for Dr. Perrin's Booklet on the subject.

PERRIN'S PILE SPECIFIC

OPENING EXERCISES.

The opening exercises of the Citizens Business College will be held in the college building Monday evening, November 3. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present at the exercises. The program.

Singing by Audience.
Opening Address by Pres. W. B. Johnson.

Quartet, Byrd Family.
Oration, J. J. Simerville.
Quartet, Byrd Family.
Address by Secretary,
Atty Dalton Biggs.

Short talk by Prof. M. E. Rigby.
Benediction.

James F. Mahon was in on business Monday.

William Gearhart, of Van, is among the visitors at court.

Clarence Drinkwater, of Harney, was in town on business Wednesday.

Supt. John Gilcrest, of the P. L. S. Co., was in Burns during the week.

J. P. Gearhart was down from his home on Calamity the first of the week.

Mrs. Myrtle Curtis and little daughter, of Narrows, are visiting in Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bonnett, of Crane Creek, spent a few days in Burns this week.

Judge L. R. Webster, of Portland, is among the attorneys in attendance at the present term of court.

J. D. Daly and family, of Drewsey, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thompson several days this week.

John H. Neal, the well-known Happy Valley sheepman, was attending to business in Burns this week.

Clerk Howe, of the U. S. Land Office of this place, returned last night from a visit with his family at Hood River.

It is reported that the Willamette Valley & Cascade Mountain Wagon Road Company will place their lands on the market in the Spring.

Uncle George Duncan, of Silver Lake, arrived in Burns yesterday, enroute to Harney and vicinity on a visit to relatives. Mr. Duncan is past 75 years of age yet is hale and hearty.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Robertson, of Drewsey, are in Burns this week. Mrs. Robertson is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rutherford, while Billy attends to his duties as a grand jurymen.

I. H. Holland, bookkeeper for the P. L. S. Co., was in the city this week to meet Mrs. Holland, who has been visiting relatives at Boise. They took their departure yesterday for their home at Burns.—Ontario Democrat.

Newt Hoover, of Lawen, is in town this week attending to some matters he has before the circuit court. Mr. Hoover is in the employ of Jones & Williamson, the sheepmen, and reports stock in his section only in fair condition for the winter.

Mrs. Harley Wood left Monday for Portland, in company with her mother, who will have her eyes treated by one of the leading oculists of that city. Last week she suddenly lost her eyesight and drove over from Burns, a distance of 135 miles, in two days.—Sumpster Miner.

James A. McCune, for several years in the stock business at Lawen, is a candidate on the republican ticket for commissioner of Washington county. Idaho Mr. McCune is a thorough business man and fully capable of looking after the interests of the taxpayers of his county and will make a first-class commissioner if elected.

The preliminary examination of the Thomason brothers for the shooting of Lewis Scott, at the Harper ranch, was held at Vale last Tuesday and resulted in the discharge of young Thomason, while his brother, James Thomason was held to appear before the grand Jury with his bond fixed at $500. Scott is reported as getting along nicely and will recover.

Local and General.

M. B. and L. B. Hayes, of Lawen, were visitors yesterday.

Jorgenson repairs watches and clocks. Work guaranteed.

Ira Stubblefield left Tuesday for the John Day after fruit.

Frank Cawfield and wife, of Narrows are visiting in town.

Paul Locher is erecting a cold storage plant opposite his brewery.

Chas Fields, of Andrews, is in Burns as a witness in the Randall case.

C. S. Johnson, of Van, is in town this week being summoned as a juror.

Chino Berdugo and A. Miranda are in from the southern part of the county.

The Winter schedule on the Canyon City-Burns mail route, goes into effect today.

Judge W. A. Booth, of Crook County, was among the visitors during the week.

Clubbing rates given with any paper or periodical published in the United States.

Thos Jenkins, a Happy Valley sheepman is viewing the sights in Burns for a few days.

Frank and Alma Davis, of Harney, spent a couple of days in Burns during the week.

The supreme court of the United States have decided that Japanese cannot become citizens.

Born, to the wife of W. J. Coleman, October 28, 1902, a daughter. Mother and child doing well.

For Sale—Hay at $5 per ton with good pasture and plenty of water Enquire of Ira Stubblefield.

J. D. Billingsley, arrived from Ontario Sunday, to look after a case he has in the circuit court.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Carey, formerly of Burns, have taken up their residence in Ontario.—Ontario Argus.

Redmond Joyce, a bricklayer of John Day, has been employed by Contractor Smith on the new Bank building.

Jorgensen is still to the front with low prices. Call and see his line of watches, clocks, jewelry, stationery, etc.

Jap and Bob McKinnon left for Huntington this week after the engine and a new dynamo for the electric light plant.

WOOD.—Good Juniper wood for sale in any quantity. Prices going up. Call on W. E. Huston in the Durkheimer building.

J. H. Weider, formerly with H. M. Horton, but now located at Eugene, was in Burns this week as a witness in the Mrs Horton case.

I. L. Poujade, of Cow Creek, is in attendance on circuit court as a juror. He was accompanied by Mrs. Poujade who will visit friends during his stay.

Mrs. Jennie Devine came in from Baker City Monday to look after her interests in the case of Billingsley vs. Devine, which will probably receive a hearing this term of court.

Work has been delayed on Fry's new brick store building owing to the delay in the arrival of the iron and plate glass front from the railroad. Teams which are out after it, however, are expected to arrive soon.

State Senator J. L. Rand, of Baker City, is in attendance on circuit court this week. Mr. Rand is council for Mrs Devine in the case of Billingsley vs. Devine, a suit for the settlement of certain property rights in the Alford section.

WAGONS! WAGONS!

We will sell you a Mitchell, Rushford or Webber Farm Bed Wagon;

34 Steel Skein $85.00

34 " " 90.00

34 " " 105.00

Send your orders to us, O. C. Co.

Rev. G. W. Black and wife returned Thursday evening from Roseburg, where Mr. Black has been attending the annual state convention of Baptist ministers. He will hold regular services Sunday assisted by Rev. Gowan who will fill the pulpit at either the morning or evening service.

Adam George, of Lawen, has our thanks for a sack of fine potatoes. There were seventy big fine fellows in the sack, aggregating seventy-five pounds. They were raised on Mr. George's ranch near Crow Camp.

To date the Interior Department has approved but one list filed by the State of Oregon under the Carey act, being for a tract of 8793 acres, lying 20 miles southeast of Burns. This is the tract which a Portland company has contracted with the state to reclaim by means of pumping stations.

Rev. Gowan and wife, who have been occupying the Baptist parsonage during the absence of Rev. Black and wife expect to start on their return home Monday. Rev. Gowan who is agent for the Baptist bible concern reports a good many sales in this place, and on his return home will stop at all the small towns between here and the railroad to carry on his work of distribution.

James Oard, of Harney, was a caller Monday. Mr. Oard is again extensively engaged in the sheep business. He says the late rains did not carry enough moisture to do the range much good, but reports his sheep in fair condition. Mr. Oard did not turn off any sheep this year as he thought he could make more money out of his wool clip another season. He informed us that his brother P. L. Oard who accompanied his sister Mrs. Rimer to her home in Ohio, some weeks ago is expected home shortly.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thompson in this city, Sunday evening October 27, 1902, the contracting parties being John Robertson, of Drewsey a brother of Mrs. Thompson and Catherine Ferguson of Chicago. The wedding ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace S. W. Miller in the presence of a small number of friends and relatives. After a short honeymoon the newly married couple will take up their residence on the McAfee ranch north of Drewsey. Mr. Robertson we understand will have charge of the Abner Robbins ranches and cattle in that section.

Poison Creek Notes.

C. W. Martin and Mr. Watson his partner in the wool trade are making preparations to go to the John Day for fruit and vegetables. Bert Bowers and Ira Stubblefield are also on the road bound for the fruit belt of the John Day.

A. W. Culp is expected to put in his appearance in Burns in the near future.

Mrs. Sherman the aged mother of Bert Bowers who journeyed with her son from Cottage Grove Western Oregon to Harney Valley is very favorably impressed with our country.

We notice that some of the old bridge lumber is being replaced in the construction of the bridges along the public highway, which speaks well for our supervisors.

G. W. Shaw anticipates leasing his ranch together with his entire herds of stock to J. H. Culp for a term of years. Mr. Shaw purposes to make a tour through Mexico and perhaps through some parts of eastern Washington with a view of spying out a more suitable location for general ranching, so we have been informed.

Eastern Poison Creek froze over from bank to bank Wednesday morning, October 29.

Pure leaf tallow, clean, especially prepared for cooking purposes can be had at the ranch of the writer, or will deliver at your door any where within the city limits of Burns at reasonable rates.

Do you want a milk cow, if so call soon as they are going off rapidly.

Do you want a bill of vegetables? If you have not laid up a supply for a long winter, you had better do it now while they are to be had at reasonable rates at the ranch of the undersigned W. H. Culp.

If you desire to trade for, or buy desirable town property call at this office.

NEW FALL GOODS

For Winter Wear

YOUR wants can be SUPPLIED. Call and examine the largest stock of General Merchandise in Eastern Oregon.

Everything the best in Quality,
Everything full Weight,
Everything at reasonable prices.

We are after your trade and will use ever honest endeavor to secure and retain it. Remember

At the Pioneer Store

N. Brown & Sons

Fall and Winter Goods

We are now receiving our Fall and Winter goods consisting of all kinds of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Groceries, &c &c. Our stock of Ladies' Dress Goods, Outing Flannels, Ladies and Children Underwear and Shoes are unexcelled. We invite you to visit our store; inspect stock and obtain prices. We guarantee satisfaction in every particular.

Lunaberg & Dalton

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL MOXMOUTH, OREGON.

Graduates of the School are in constant demand at salaries ranging from $40.00 to $100.00 per month. Students take the state examinations during their course in the school and are prepared to receive State Certificates on graduation. Expenses range from $129.00 to $175.00 per year. Strong Normal course and well equipped Training Department. The fall term opens Sept. 16. For catalogue containing full information, address E. D. PRESSLER, or J. E. V. Butler, Sec'y President.

The Capital Saloon

W. E. TRISCH, Proprietor.

BEST OF WINES, LIQUORS AND CIGARS.

Drinks mixed to suit your taste. Courteous treatment guaranteed. Your patronage Solicited.

Miller & Thompson,

Successors to R. A. Miller & Co.