HE IS THERE

"Hon. A. W. Gowan of Burns" at the Capital.

MAY GET A PROXY

Will Assist in Organizing the Legislature—Will Ride "Dark Horse"

FOR HON. C. A. JOHNS

Vast Resources of Harney County Not Yet Dreamed of By "Outsiders."

Salem, Or., Jan. 9. (Special Correspondence).—Hon. A. W. Gowan, of Burns, arrived in this city today, and will at once proceed with his plans for a proper organization of the coming session of the legislature, to the great relief of all new members of that body, most of whom have had little or no experience in that line.

Mr. Gowan hopes to succeed in getting a proxy, so that he may be able to personally introduce his choice for United States senator and lead in his behalf in the thickest of the coming fray. It is hardly to be anticipated at this time however, that his "choice" will prove to be the victor in this case, but when it is remembered that the "Senator" is a man of no small capabilities and that he has heretofore had things pretty much his own way as a member of the upper house of our legislature, and that notwithstanding the flight of time, he is no less vigorous than of yore, it may not be a wild guess after all, that his dark horse will get there. (The above may appear to outsiders as merely a hot air announcement, but when the vast re-
