

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

NOT IN ANY TRUST

As newspapers have lately given currency to reports by irresponsible parties to the effect that

THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO. had entered a trust or combination; we wish to assure the public that there is no truth in such reports. We have been manufacturing sewing machines for over a quarter of a century, and have established a reputation for ourselves and our machines that is the envy of all others. Our "New Home" machine has never been rivalled as a family machine. It stands at the head of all High Grade sewing machines, and stands on its own merits.

The "New Home" is the only really HIGH GRADE Sewing Machine on the market.

It is not necessary for us to enter into a trust to save our credit or pay any debts as we have no debts to pay. We have never entered into competition with manufacturers of low grade cheap machines that are made to sell regardless of any intrinsic merits. Do not be deceived, when you want a sewing machine don't send your money away from home; call on a "New Home" Dealer, he can sell you a better machine for less than you can purchase elsewhere. If there is no dealer near you, write direct to us.

A CENT FROM EVERYBODY.

Taken Altogether it Would Mean a Heavy Tribute, Unhandy to Collect.

A tramp who lately sought a night's lodging at Dover, Ky., announced that he was bent on collecting one penny from every person on earth. He had already got 28 cents.

This fantastic idea of a humorous adventurer is not lacking in suggestiveness, though it isn't necessarily suggested that anybody should take up his siting job in dead earnest.

In the first place, when Mr. Tramp or anybody else gets his coin-collecting task done he will find the need of making arrangements with the railroad company for a lot of large-sized freight cars. He will have something like 3,800 tons of metal on hand which won't transport itself.

And if he gets tired of thinking of his precious one-cent pieces by weight he can think of them by miles. Stood up on edge and stretched away in long lines, the coin would reach from New York to Chicago and back to Buffalo, with a whole lot to spare. There would indeed be 1,184 miles of hard cash in the narrow, continuous rolls.

This, it seems, should be a lot of money. So it is. Yet no Rockefeller, Gould, Astor or Vanderbilt would have particular cause to envy its possessor.

The sum represented would be, in round numbers, about $15,000,000 since it would consist of one cent each from about 1,500,000,000 persons.

As to the time that it will take to collect this tribute from the earth at large, let no one think it is a job for a week, a month or a day.

IN THE FAR WEST.

How Freighters Kept the Whisky's Weight and Quality Unimpaired.

A man at one of the hotels the other night told an interesting story of how the freighters of the far west used to supply themselves with whisky, says the Louisville Courier-Journal. He said that some years ago when all freight was hauled in wagons, he happened to make a trip of several hundred miles with a train of wagons carrying merchandise to remote stations. Nearly every wagon contained one or more barrels of whisky.

"The first night out I noticed," said he, "great activity around the whisky barrels. The wagons each had a hatchet and a gimlet. They would knock up a hoop, bore a hole, draw all the whisky they wanted, then put about as much fine gravel in the barrel as they had drawn out whisky, drive a plug in the hole and put the hoop back in place.

"I learned afterward that the barrels were weighed and the whisky tested before it was turned over to the freighters, and that when it arrived at its destination it was again weighed and tested. The gravel supplied the weight and bulk and the quantity remained the same, and this is why it was used instead of water to supply the of what had been taken out."

Explained—"What makes you women kiss when you meet?" "It is a sort of apology in advance for what we mean to say about each other after we part."—Indianapolis Journal.

"Excuse me, sir," said Barker to a boorish traveler, "but what is your business?" "I am a gentleman, sir. That's my business." "Ah," said Barker. "I see. You are taking a vacation."—Harper's Bazar.

"What did you see in America, uncle?" cried the boys. "Oh, I saw the Catskill mountains," said Uncle Peter, jocosely. "I expect it was one of those mountains that brought forth the mouse," said Jock, thoughtfully.—Household Words.

Always Moving—"Jehc," said the frightened wife in the middle of the night, "there's something moving down cellar, I'm sure." John listened intently. "Oh, it's nothing but the gas meter peeping away," he said with a sigh of relief.—Harlem Life.

"Really," said Mrs. De Torque, "it's very distressing to see how common things are getting." "Yes," replied her husband; "luxuries are a good deal cheaper than they were." "It's positively shameful. Why, it's getting so that anybody can afford a diamond robbery nowadays."—Washington Star.

I have had occasion to use your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and am pleased to say that I never used anything for stock that gave half as good satisfaction. I heartily recommend it to all owners of stock.

J. B. BEISNER, St. Louis, Mo.

Stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick persons should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it be possible to cure it. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine unloads the bowels and starts up the torpid liver. It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Secure a 25-cent can of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Horses work better. Cows give more milk. Hogs gain flesh. And hens lay more eggs. It solves the problem of making as much blood, flesh and energy as possible out of the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealer.
