

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

NOT IN ANY TRUST

Many newspapers have lately given currency to reports by irresponsible parties to the effect that

THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO had entered a trust or combination; we wish to assure the public that there is no truth in such reports. We have been manufacturing sewing machines for over a quarter of a century, and have established a reputation for ourselves and our machines that is the envy of all others. Our "New Home" machine has never been rivaled as a family machine—it stands at the head of all High Grade sewing machines, and stands on its own merits.

The "New Home" is the only really HIGH GRADE Sewing Machine on the market.

It is not necessary for us to enter into a trust to save our credit or pay any debts as we have no debts to pay. We have never entered into competition with manufacturers of low grade cheap machines that are made to sell regardless of any intrinsic merits. Do not be deceived, when you want a sewing machine don't send your money away from home; call on a "New Home" Dealer, he can sell you a better machine for less than you can purchase elsewhere. If there is no dealer near you, write direct to us.

A DETECTIVE'S STORY.

The Sweetheart Robbed to Pay a Man's Courtship Expenses.

"I was disgusted a few days ago at a case I worked up," remarked a detective to a Washington Star reporter. "A young lady who was possessed of considerable money and a number of jewels sent for me. She had been robbed of some diamonds valued at several hundred dollars. I finally found all but one pin, they having been pawned. I obtained a description of the man who borrowed money upon them, but for several weeks could not locate him. When I did his landlady said that he had left that morning and was going to Baltimore. I watched the depot, and was soon rewarded by seeing the man step out of a hack. I seized his arm and said: 'You are arrested!' 'What for?' he asked, in a tone that showed he was not much surprised, but greatly frightened. 'That will be explained at the station,' I replied. There was a feminine shriek from the hack, and, glancing into the vehicle, I saw it was my fair client. They had just been married and were starting on their wedding trip. I took in the situation at a glance, and then realizing that I was powerless under the new order of affairs, I said: 'I see now that you are not the man I want,' and let him go. Then he began to bluster, and, talking him aside, I gave him to understand I knew of his robbing the girl to pay the expenses of his courtship, and he quieted down very suddenly."

He Was a Stranger.
"Do you put an 'e' in whisky here?" asked a new reporter of a Kentucky paper.
"No," replied the editor, who was slightly deaf; "we put nothing in whisky here. We take it straight."—Day City Chat.

Plain.
"If a fellow has a chance to marry a poor, handsome girl, or a rich, plain girl, which do you think he ought to do?"
"It looks to me as if the proper course is a plain one in that case."—Indianapolis Journal.

Misunderstood.
"Hannah," said the mistress to her new girl, "you can take that brown serge dress of mine and put it in soak."
"Yes'in," said Hannah, "who's your favorite pawnbroker?"—Detroit Free Press.

Sure Signs.
"There's a woman disguised as a man."
"How do you know?"
"She grabbed at her coat-tails and stepped off the car backward."—Chicago Record.

Love in the Superlative.
She—if you had never met me, would you have loved some other girl as much as you do me?
He—My darling, if I had never met you I believe I should have committed suicide.—Truth.

The Spice of Life.
Mrs. Real—I think, Mr. Pen, that the fiction writers are so different from other writers; they are so unique.
Mr. Pen—Certainly, they are novel men.—To Date.

Too Many Checks.
"What is the matter with Phillips senior? He has been ill ever since his son went to college."
"Remittent fever, possibly."—Detroit Free Press.

No Faith in Her.
Little Miss Freckles—Mrs. Stuekupp has got a big round glass and it's full of gold-fish.
Little Miss Muggs—Huh! I'll bet they're plated.—Good News.

Those Girls.
Amy—Since I refused Jack positively he calls oftener than he did before.
Maud—I suppose he thinks it safer now.—Town Topic.

Hamppered.
Host (to guest at turkey dinner)—Would you like to do the carving, Mr. Fitzsimmons?
Mr. F.—No, thanks. I've just joined the church.—N. Y. World.

SMILES IN BRIEF.

"Isn't Scribba a hack-writer?" "Hack-writer? Not much; he doesn't even earn street car fare."—Chicago Record.
"Are you on intimate terms with your neighbors?" "No; but they are with us. Why, they know dreadful secrets of ours that we never heard of even."—Harper's Bazar.
"What's the matter, Uncle Rufus?" he asked facetiously as the old man came limping in; "got the gout?" "No, sah, I've got de bill fo' dat whitewashin' what I did fo' yer las' yeah."—Harlem Life.

Sad Experience.—The Doctor—"You'll come around all right, Judge. Any physician would tell you the same thing." The Judge—"Yes, doctor; but I've heard so much expert testimony!"—Brooklyn Life.
Arizona Editor—"I see that the eastern cult still sticks to our new reporter." Assistant—"How's that?" Arizona Editor—"In writing up that taf-and-feather racket he mentions the victim as being clothed in 'a garb of some soft, clinging material.'"—Puck.

CURRENT HUMOR.
THE man who invented work evidently had nothing to do.—Fliegende Blätter.
Almost any mortal can resist the temptation to steal when to steal is unnecessary.—Galveston News.

PUSILLA—"Don't you envy my luck? Isn't Jack Murray a splendid fellow to have for a fiancé?" Prunella—"O, yes; I know that from experience."—Truth.
"I," meditatively muttered the funny boarder, "it is true, as some scientist asserts, chickens really talk, the language of two-thirds of them must be pretty blamed tough."—Buffalo Courier.

"You're not in love, Robbie. You only think you are." "Well, how the dickens am I to find out my mistake if I am mistaken?" "O, marry the young woman, by all means."—Harper's Bazar.

DOUBTS—"Sir Isaac Newton—um—yes—he was one of the founders of Punch. He was not?" "Fobbs—Goodness, no! What do you mean?" "Dobbs—Why, he was the discoverer of the law of gravity."—Harlem Life.

It Was Evident.
"I see some skates are talking about a six-year presidential term, an' sayin' it's a good thing," said the fat man. "Well, we wouldn't have so many campaigns in that case," returned the little man. "That's why I favor it." "Do you favor it?" asked the fat man, scowling at the little one. "Certainly." "Well, I don't know who you are, but I'll bet a ten-dollar bill to a copper cent you're not in the saloon business."—Chicago Evening Post.

Advantages of Matrimony.
Mr. Wallace—It seems to me that if ever a bachelor realizes his unhappy lot it must be when he is in bed sick.
Mrs. Wallace—Yes. There is a great difference between a hired nurse and a wife. If he goes to throwing the medicine bottles and things at the nurse when she happens to hurt his rheumatism she will leave.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Usually the Way.
We hire a fair stenographer. And for a time dictate to her. But very soon it makes us "cuss" To find that she dictates to us.—Town Topics.

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK AND POULTRY MEDICINE

I have had occasion to use your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and am pleased to say that I never used anything for stock that gave half as good satisfaction. I heartily recommend it to all owners of stock.
J. B. BELSHER, St. Louis, Mo.
Sick stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick persons should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it be possible to cure it. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine unloads the bowels and stirs up the torpid liver. It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Secure a 25-cent can of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Horses work better. Cows give more milk. Hogs gain flesh. And hens lay more eggs. It solves the problem of making as much blood, flesh and energy as possible out of the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealer.

In every town and village may be had, the Mica Axle Grease that makes your horses glad.
