His Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"B. L. Byer, a well known cooper of this town, says he believes Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. He had been sick for a month with what the doctors call bilious dysentery, and could get nothing to do him any good until he tried this remedy. It gave him immediate relief," says B. T. Little, merchant, Hancock, Md. For sale by H. M. Horton, Burns; Fred Haines, Harney.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for anything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and one dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Send your orders to us, O. C. Co Wool is selling for 14 cents at points along the Short Line. Wilson Bros. of Boise have sold their clip of 100,000 pounds at 14 cents straight. Ever since the wool market opened the wool buyers have been talking 13 cents as the top price.—Huntington Herald.

Clarence Carey was an Ontario visitor from Crane Creek, Harney County, last week. His mother, Mrs. Dave Carey and sister Grace, accompanied him on his return home, where Mrs. Carey goes in the hope of benefiting her health.—Argus.

Receiver Chas. Newell informs us that the local land office is in receipt of a letter from the Southern Pacific Railroad Co., asking for information regarding this district. The Company will advertise this section with a view of securing immigrants for this region.

E. H. King, ex-sawmill man but now a sheep baron in Happy Valley, was in Thursday on business. He says he pulled through the winter and early spring in fine shape and has a good crop of lambs. He hasn't commenced to shear yet but expects to in a few days.

Blackwell & Mace this week disposed of the cattle they have been feeding on the range near Huntington. Five hundred head were sold to M. B. Parsons and shipped to Montana, while the remainder of the bunch was sold to Wesley Parker & Co. of North Powder. The cattle brought a good price.—Huntington Herald.

Mrs. Henry Caldwell received the sad intelligence this week of the death of her father, J. Jennings at Grants pass, on the 14th from paralysis. The deceased was 78 years of age. Besides a wife he leaves six children to mourn his loss, three sons and three daughters. Henry Jennings who resides on Soldier Creek, is a son of the deceased.

A team belonging to Simon Lewis was drowned in the river near the Emmett Clark place Tuesday. Mr. Lewis was driving across a bridge when the structure gave way, the horses, hack and driver being thrown into the river. Mr. Lewis escaped with a ducking but the team never came up after going into the water. Homer Mace was along but crossed ahead of the team.

We are informed that the Martin Bros, who own valuable ranch property on the river north of Burns are negotiating for the sale of their holdings in this vicinity and that they intend to leave this county this summer in quest of a new location. It is with regret that we learn of their intentions as they are among the substantial and reliable citizens of the county, and we hope that they may see it to their advantage to remain with us.

Home trading helps home business. A dollar spent at home comes back to the spender. Home trading helps build up the home city. Home trading permits the buyer to examine goods before they are paid for. Home trading encourages home merchants to keep a larger stock of goods and to reduce prices to the lowest margin of profit. Home trading gives opportunity for profitable employment to many clerks, salesmen and other employees. Home trading helps your business, what ever it is. Do you trade at home?

Caspar Luig the well known rancher living South of Burns, died at the home of Paul Locher in this city, May 18, 1903. The deceased was a native of Westfall Germany and was 66 years of age. He has been a resident of this county for 18 years and had acquired considerable property. The only near relative living is his brother Henry Luig, of this place. The funeral took place Tuesday morning from the Catholic church, the services being conducted by Father Doyle, and the remains laid to rest in the Burns cemetery.

Leon Brown, of the Pioneer firm of N. Brown & Sons, returned to Burns this week from Eureka, California, where he has been spending the past year looking after the interests of their branch house at that place. While the firm was doing a large business at Eureka, their interests were to widely separated to give needed attention to all and they disposed of their business at that place. Leon is pleased to be back in Burns again where his firm has done so much to build up our little city. His father who intended accompanying him was unable to make the trip on account of an attack of rheumatism. His friends hope that ere this he has regained his usual health.
