

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

NOT IN ANY TRUST

Many newspapers have lately given currency to reports by irresponsible parties to the effect that

THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO. had entered a trust or combination; we wish to assure the public that there is no truth in such reports. We have been manufacturing sewing machines for over a quarter of a century, and have established a reputation for ourselves and our machines that is the envy of all others. Our "New Home" machine has never been rivalled as a family machine—it stands at the head of all High Grade sewing machines, and stands on its own merits. The "New Home" is the only really HIGH GRADE Sewing Machine on the market.

It is not necessary for us to enter into a trust to save our credit or pay any debts as we have no debts to pay. We have never entered into competition with manufacturers of low grade cheap machines that are made to sell regardless of any intrinsic merits. Do not be deceived, when you want a sewing machine don't send your money away from home; call on a "New Home" Dealer, he can sell you a better machine for less than you can purchase elsewhere. If there is no dealer near you, write direct to us.

Maud Muller.

Revised Edition.

One day Maud Muller just down the branch

Grubbed sagebrush on her daddy's ranch.

A calico dress enveloped her

And she needed no bust developer.

The sweat streamed down her sun-burnt face

But it didn't wilt expensive lace.

A horseman rode up with a broad brimmed hat

A pinto cayuse and buffalo shape.

He threw the reins o'er the horse's head

And struck the ground like a pig of lead.

Then straight to the maid he marched up bold

And hoisted sombrero like knight of old.

Then said in a voice as soft as silk:

"Can you give me a drink of buttermilk?"

The maiden blushed a brick colored blush

And smiled as broad as a scrubbing brush.

Then answered, as he rolled a "cig.":

"Yes, if Ma hasn't given it to the pig."

They strolled to the tumbled down shack of hers,

The sunbrowned maid and the man in spurs.

He talked in his buccaroo dialect;

Her mountain lingo had a slight defect.

She fished a quart cup from an upper shelf

And showed him the churn and he helped himself.

He wiped his mustache and raised his brow,

And made another most courtly bow.

Then he jingled his spurs and cracked his quirt,

And the pinto jumped as though he was hurt.

He was gone—oyer badger hole, brush and stone

And sunbrowned Maud stood there alone.

Long her heart was disturbed between her naps

By the buttermilk man in the wooly "shaps."

In autumn, when the nights were turning cool,

Maud went east to a boarding school.

Then she thought her western life too tame,

And prepared to fish for larger game.

She copied her manners from the boarding school stars

And learned to pronounce without any r's.

She learned to shrink her scrubbing brush smile

And turn it on a man who had made his pile.

When he asked the right to pay for her silk,

She pined not a moment for buttermilk.

The only thing that caused her a tear

Was how to spend ten thousand a year.

That was years ago and her time she's spent

In society's unalloyed merriment.

This spring, as the trees were budding green

She visited again her childhood scene.

As her auto approached the tumbled down shack

She passed a girl with a grubbing axe.

And as she drew up to the doorway bare

A half score of children were romping there.

Seeking the cause of so much uproar,

A roman nosed woman came to the door.

"What's your name, good lady," says Maud, "I pray

Who lives mid the scenes of my childhood's day."

"I'm the wife," said she with the Roman nose,

"Of the man with the wooly chaparrajos."

"Eleven girls have blessed the bans

'To grub the brush and tend buttermilk cans."

Maud opened the throttle and climbed the hill,

Her mind was troubled and her tongue was still.

She turned up her nose and tossed her chin

And shuddered at the thought of what "might have been."

THE FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT THE ORIGINAL LIVER MEDICINE

A sallow complexion, dizziness, biliousness and a coated tongue are common indications of liver and kidney diseases. Stomach and bowel troubles, severe as they are, give immediate warning by pain, but liver and kidney troubles, though less painful at the start, are much harder to cure. The Ford's Black-Draught never fails to benefit diseased liver and weakened kidneys. It cleans up the torpid liver to throw off the germs of fever and ague. It is a certain preventive of cholera and Bright's disease of the kidneys. With kidneys reinforced by The Ford's Black-Draught thousands of persons have dwelt immune in the midst of yellow fever. Many families live in perfect health and have no other doctor than The Ford's Black-Draught. It is always on hand for use in an emergency and saves many expensive calls of a doctor.

Mullins, S. C., March 10, 1901. I have used The Ford's Black-Draught for three years and I have not had to go to a doctor since I have been taking it. It is the best medicine for me that is on the market for liver and kidney troubles and dyspepsia and other complaints. Rev. A. G. LEWIS.
