Orion Kinneraly, representing the Blake, McFall Co., of Portland, is interviewing local business men today.

Elmar Clark, of Suplee, is in Burns today making final proof on his homestead. Mr. Clark is a brother of Mrs. A. M. Byrd.

Mr and Mrs J. H. Weider were passengers on the stage this morning enroute to Boise. We understand they will be absent about two months.

Bill Harris, foreman of the P. L. S. ranch at Man Lake, Harney county, was in town this week. Mr. Harris contemplates buying a ranch near here.—Vale Gazette.

Hon. C. W. Parrish, of Burns, who has been in the city for a couple of weeks, accompanied the Burns delegation to Prairie City Wednesday to confer with Major Bonta.—Canyon City Eagle.

John Cawfield and Joe Buchanan were in from their camp on Stenken Water Mountain this week. They report work on their grading contract progressing rapidly and hope to complete their work by the 20th.

M. H. Brenton is in from the Sod House for a few days. Mart reports some heavy rains in his locality the past week. Feed he says, is looking fine and the prospects are bright for a good hay crop.

GREAT MILLINERY SALE! Big reduction in Ladies' and Children's street hats, and Children's trimmed hats. Don't overlook one of the greatest bargains ever offered in Burns. Call at the home of Mrs. G. W. Cummins.

The school board for the Burns district met Monday and elected the following teachers for the ensuing school year: Prof. A. C. Finn, principal; Prof. I. A. Dillard, Mrs. Alice Graham, Miss Ella Thompson and Miss Maud Ragon.

Grant Thompson and family were in from their home on Crane Creek Monday. Grant thinks the prospects are not very bright for the stockmen the coming Fall as to feed for livestock, and is looking for a buyer for a part of his cattle.

Miss Fannie Donegan, for the past two years one of our popular teachers, in the public school, took her departure for her home in Jacksonville, last Saturday. Miss Donegan has won the hearts of the little folks and she will be greatly missed by them another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Williams and Robt. George returned Thursday from Canyon City where Mr. Williams had been called on legal business. They were accompanied on their return home by Miss Bertha, who has been spending the past few months in Portland under treatment by an oculist.

John Farra returned this week from Alberta, where he went to view the country. He reports sleighing there on May 24, and says he saw more dead cattle there just after the recent storm than he ever saw live ones in this country. He comes back satisfied that there are worse countries than Harney valley.

Lost, between Burns and Cow Creek a small pocket book containing three notes and some receipts, also some penny pictures and a pocket knife with the name of W. T. Hardy, Baker City, Or., on the handle. Finder will please leave at this office or forward to Mr. Hardy at John Day, who will pay a reasonable reward for their recovery.

The annual school election will be held in Burns on June 15th for the purpose of electing a member of the board of directors and a clerk. The outgoing officials are Director L. Woldenberg Jr., elected to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Marsden, and clerk W. E. Huston. Little interest is yet manifest but there is likely to be an abundance of candidates especially to the former position, as there is some complaint at the recent action of the school board in turning down some of last year's teachers.
