

WEEDS

Consumption is a humor weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. It isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

NOT IN ANY TRUST

Many newspapers have lately given currency to reports by irresponsible parties to the effect that

THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO had entered a trust or combination; we wish to assure the public that there is no trust in such reports. We have been manufacturing sewing machines for over a quarter of a century, and our machines that are the envy of all others. Our "New Home" machine has never been rivaled as a family machine. It stands at the head of all High Grade sewing machines, and stands the same today.

We have never entered into competition with manufacturers of low grade cheap machines that are made to sell regardless of any intrinsic merits. Do not be deceived, when you want a sewing machine don't spend your money away from home; call on a "New Home" Dealer, he can sell you a better machine for less than you can purchase elsewhere. STRANGE ACCIDENTS TO BIRDS.

A poor little chaffin was found dead near Epsom with its lower mandible so firmly imbedded in the shell of a beechnut that it had been unable to extricate it and had died of starvation.

A hen pheasant was observed by a sportsman to be flying around and around in a wild manner. On being shot it was discovered to have a large oak leaf imbedded upon its back in such a way as to totally obscure its vision.

Heron sometimes choke themselves by attempting to swallow large trout. An elder-duck has been killed by attempting to swallow a toad. A Kingfisher was once found which could not fly on account of having a young pike stuck in its throat. Some hunters removed the fish and the bird flew away unhurt.

An Irish naturalist once observed a dunlin acting in a very curious manner on the seashore. The bird would alight, then fly a short distance and then alight again, violently shaking its head. A round lump appeared fastened to its back. It turned out that the bird had innocently attempted to investigate a cockle which it had found open. The shell had closed on its bill.

Birds that employ hair in the building of their nests come to grief in strange ways. A gentleman who possessed several colts one day noticed a small bird entangled in the tail of one of his colts. It had evidently been on a search for hair and had become ensnared. Cases of birds getting their feet entangled in wool or string are well known, and death usually ensues if human help is not forthcoming.

A WOMAN IN EACH.

The medical school of Johns Hopkins university is open to women as well as men. This is because the women of Baltimore provided over $420,000 toward endowing the medical department on condition that women should be admitted.

Miss Alice Balfour, sister of the new lord of the treasury and chief secretary for Ireland in the new British cabinet, is, in her way, as clever as her brothers. She has in process of publication a book called "Twelve Hundred Miles in an Ox Wagon."

Mrs. Grant is said to be happier in her Washington home with Mrs. Sartoris and her children about her than she has been since the death of Gen. Grant. She is kept busy with household duties and with the preparation of a book of reminiscences.

Last year Queen Victoria had to append her signature to some 50,000 documents. When at Buckingham or Windsor she practically never has a holiday. She rises at 7:30; at eight she has prayers and half an hour later breakfast, after which she works with her secretary until two o'clock.

Poor relatives, even of royalty, have much to put up with. Countess Fedora Gleichen, one of the German descendants of the mother of Queen Victoria, dabbles in sculpture and has been commissioned by her majesty to make a bust of the late E. Clark, John Brown's nephew and successor as highland attendant.

A FRIEND TO WOMEN.

Gen. Spinner, Who First Employed Women

If any man deserves the gratitude of the "new" woman, it is the man to whom the sex is indebted for one of the greatest advantages which women enjoy at the present day—that of holding office under Uncle Sam. When the first woman was put in the office of the treasurer of the United States there were only 29 clerks to do all the work, and a batch of seven women was appointed. Now there are 6,000 women at work for the government and the number is yearly increasing.

In 1862 all the available men were needed in the volunteer army. This was the reason for the appointment of the women in the various departments at Washington. The then United States treasurer, Gen. Francis E. Spinner, one day went into the room where men were engaged in cutting the "greenbacks," which first made their appearance under the financial policy of Chase. Huge shears were used and the labor, which was simply the clipping of the paper, was such that Gen. Spinner remarked that there was no reason why some women should not be employed to assist in a work that was daily increasing in size.

Gen. Spinner died about five years ago. In 1901 a mass meeting was called, and what is now known as the Gen. Spinner Memorial association was organized. Its object was to erect some suitable monument to the man who had done so much for the women, and the women in the government employ are expected to show their gratitude by contributing to the work.

The statue has been modeled and cast and is now in the Washington studio of the sculptor, Mr. Elliott, the creator of the statue to Gen. Hancock which is to be erected in the fall. The figure is of bronze and represents the general in a simple but dignified attitude, with a large cloak thrown around his ample shoulders.

The statue and pedestal will cost about $4,000. An effort has been made to secure a site in front of the treasury building, on the north side, and a bill granting permission passed the senate but was pigeon-holed in the house.—N. Y. World.

SPARKS FROM MANY FLINTS.

"Your cook is a very handsome girl." "She is. She mashes potatoes by looking at them."

"He—Your friend, I hear, paints faces beautifully." "She—'Only one.'"

ERIE.—"Mr. Passleigh has a remarkably fresh complexion." "Maud—'Yes, I never saw such a young head on such old shoulders.'—Truth.

ART, MUSIC AND SCIENCE.

Tribby has reached Paris. It is to be made there into an opera comique.

Eugene d'Albert opera Ghismonda was very coldly received at its first performance in Dresden.

"Jack the Ripper" is the subject of a new opera about to be produced at Verona, music and words by an Italian named Giona.

Leo XIII. and Duo d'Aumale have been made honorary members of the St. Petersburg Imperial Academy of Science.

Prof. Knekefus, who executed Kaiser Wilhelm's allegorical cartoon, has been appointed director of the Berlin National museum in succession to Dr. Jordan.

Lassalle, the baritone, has set up a cereal manufactory at Chantemelle on the Seine. He attends to the business himself, and has been made mayor of the town.

Temperance in Poverty.

Clerk (in ten-cent lodging-house)—That fellow in bunk 40 must be a regular prohibitionist.

Proprietor (amazed)—Ye don't say so?

Clerk—No doubt of it. He says there's bugs in the bed. None of our other guests ever sees anything but snakes.—N. Y. Weekly.

Great Will Power Required.

"It must take great strength of mind for a man to say to a woman that he loves her too much to think of asking her to marry him."

"It must. In addition to sacrificing his own happiness he knows that the girl thinks he is a liar."—Indianapolis Journal.

His Best Need.

"You are asking for alms, are you?" asked a benevolent individual of a crippled beggar.

"No, sir," replied the unfortunate man. "I have my arms all right, but if you get me a good cork leg I'd be forever in debt to you, sir."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by H. M. Horton, Burns; Fred Haines, Harney.

"If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would observe results they would find that the doctor's prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for."

"In consulting with my druggist he advised McElev's Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

Wine of Cardui is a regulator of the menstrual functions and is a most astonishing tonic for women. It cures neuralgia, depression, too frequent, irregular and painful menstruation, falling of the womb, whites and flooding. It is helpful when approaching womanhood, during pregnancy, after childbirth and in change of life. It frequently brings a dear baby to home that have been barren for years. All druggists have $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
